American Officials Have No Comment on Allegation

TOKYO (AP) — Communist Radio Peking reported that China hurled new defiance at the United States today after claiming to have downed one of four U.S. planes it said violated Chinese air space.

There was no comment on the Chinese claim from U.S. officials in Washington or Saigon.

A spokesman for Peking's defense ministry termed the alleged aerial intrusion "a planned and premeditated action, part of the U.S. imperialists' efforts to expand their war aggression in Asia."

"If the U.S. imperialists insist on imposing war upon the Chinese people and engaging in a trial of military strength, we say to them, you are welcome," he continued.

Will Hit Back
"If you dare to come, we will dare to hit back. We will fight whenever you come, and whenever you appear. We will wipe you out whether you come singly or in pairs."

His words were similar to those of Foreign Minister Chen Yi, who last week challenged the United States, Soviet Union, India and Britain to invade China "and be wiped out."

Right-to-Work Test Vote Set By Mansfield

Not Many Senators
Believe Move Will Settle Anything

WASHINGTON (AP) — A vote Friday will test senatorial views on the right of states to ban the union shop, but few senators expect it to settle anything.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, talking to newsmen today, agreed that one or more additional tests undoubtedly will be needed before any final disposition is made of the issue for this session.

The pending bill, tied up in a forlorn looking man seated alone at the huge, octagonal table in the White House Cabinet room, announced the forthcoming operation to newsmen Tuesday night at the close of a day of suspense.

The physician who will perform the operation, Dr. George A. Hallenbeck of the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minn., said it will be major surgery but "the risk to a normal person of the President's age is very low indeed."

And the man who handled Johnson's severe heart attack in 1955, Dr. J. Willis Hurst, chairman of the medical department at Emory University in Atlanta, Ga., said that: "We do not anticipate difficulty. Obviously we intend to be as careful and cautious as possible."

But, he said, it should bring "an honest expression of the attitudes of members" on the dispute "and, hence, provide some measure of guidance" on the course desired by the majority.

Leaders on both sides of the issue said they expect the tabling motion to lose by about the same margin — 10 votes — that sponsors of the bill claim for it on a final passage roll call.

Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, leading the fight against the measure, said he would be delighted to

Ohio Boy, 15, Trapped in Cave Crevise

MEDINA, Ohio (AP) — Morris Baetzold, hungry and cold, but still calm, was stuck head-first in a narrow tunnel in a cave today while rescuers figured how to get him out.

"That kid's got a lot of guts," said a police official. "He has been in there all this time and he's still calm."

Morris, 15, who lives at the Methodist Children's Home in Berea, near Cleveland, went exploring with companions Tuesday and wandered into "Wildcat Cave" at Whippes Ledges in Hinckley, about 12 miles north of here.

He began to crawl around the various tunnels leading off the main cave, went around a big slab of rock, and slipped into a V-shaped crevice. He is held fast by the waist.

Rescuers have tried with no success since shortly after noon Tuesday to free him.

Seven members of the National Speleological Society, cave experts of the National Rescue Squad, arrived at Cleveland Hopkins Airport at 6 a.m. and were given a police escort to the scene. They had been summoned by the Ohio Highway Patrol.

Johnson Announces Plans for Operation

Gall Bladder Surgery
Scheduled for Friday,
President Tells Newsmen

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson is facing surgery Friday for removal of his gall bladder, then 10 to 14 days in the hospital and several weeks more on a reduced schedule.

The President, 57, a rather forlorn looking man seated alone at the huge, octagonal table in the White House Cabinet room, announced the forthcoming operation to newsmen Tuesday night at the close of a day of suspense.

The physician who will perform the operation, Dr. George A. Hallenbeck of the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minn., said it will be major surgery but "the risk to a normal person of the President's age is very low indeed."

And the man who handled Johnson's severe heart attack in 1955, Dr. J. Willis Hurst, chairman of the medical department at Emory University in Atlanta, Ga., said that: "We do not anticipate difficulty. Obviously we intend to be as careful and cautious as possible."

Group Risk

Hurst said Johnson has had no heart difficulty for 10 years and: "I would place him in a group of risks similar to any other patient who has not had a heart attack."

Johnson will check in at the U.S. Naval Hospital in Suburban Bethesda, Md., Thursday night. A Navy commander for a time in World War II, Johnson was taken to this hospital after his heart attack. And he was there for 3½ days last January with a sore throat and heavy cold.

He reported Tuesday night that "the doctors expect there will be minimal time during which I will not be conducting business as usual."

And he sounded assurances that should presidential action or decision be needed and he was unable to provide them, standing arrangements are in effect for Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey to act in his place.

Discussed Case

Johnson met with Humphrey and the Cabinet just before he read his announcement to newsmen.

Rumors Follow Elections Military Units Alerted In Rio de Janeiro

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — Military units went on the alert in Rio de Janeiro during the night as supporters of former President Juscelino Kubitschek led in gubernatorial races in seven of Brazil's 11 states.

There were widespread rumors of impending military intervention in the wake of the elections Sunday and Kubitschek's return Monday after 16 months of self-imposed exile.

There was no official explanation for the alert. Officers on duty at Fort Copacabana said it was "only a routine exercise."

Sentries at the Navy ministry said they were ordered not to let civilians approach the building. Lights were burning on several floors at 1:30 a.m., and several officers arrived.

No Orders

One crack unit in the suburbs said it had not received the alert order yet, but a senior officer said it was "probably a preliminary measure." He would not explain.

The city was generally calm, however, and there were no signs of unusual military or police activity except at the military installations.

House Approves $500,000 for FDR Commission

WASHINGTON (AP) — The commission to build a memorial to Franklin Delano Roosevelt is seeking a new lease on life.

The House voted to authorize $500,000 more for the project Tuesday after its new chairman, Rep. Eugene J. Keogh, D-N.Y., reported that the commission is "absolutely stone broke."

Action still is needed by the Senate.

The commission was created 10 years ago, and by 1959 had piled up bills to surrounding counties. Then a smaller group appeared at the opposite end of the street and got near the buses but were abandoned. Along the way, a commission spokesman said, the commission spent $185,000, including $110,000 in design prize money.

Keogh said the new authorization will let the commission try again.

Vice President Hubert Humphrey at Tuesday's White House news conference, told newsmen that President Johnson had discussed the world situation fully with him and he would be prepared to act should the occasion arise during the President's hospitalization for a gall bladder operation. Seated at left are doctors who will perform the operation Friday. (AP Wirephoto)

In Former Capital

Report Fighting Continues Through Parts of Indonesia

By TONY ESCODA
KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — Radio Jakarta reported new fighting in central Java today and said the city of Jogjakarta, former capital of the Indonesian Republic, had changed hands three times.

One broadcast said there was no information on who now controlled Jogjakarta. 250 miles southeast of Jakarta, but added that fighting was still going on in the area.

All India Radio in New Delhi reported that Jogjakarta was in rebel hands again but gave no source for its information.

In earlier broadcasts Jakarta Radio said sporadic fighting was going on in other parts of central Java, where rebel units of the Diponegoro division are holding out, and in the outskirts of Jakarta. One broadcast said army units loyal to President Sukarno had set up a new command to direct the fight against the rebels who, with Communist backing, tried to seize power last week.

The Indonesian radio repeatedly broadcast appeals to troops in central Java to remain loyal to Sukarno's government.

Another Jakarta broadcast reported that pro-Sukarno members of the Diponegoro division were being brutally slain by the rebels. It said one regimental commander was killed in front of his family, then his wife and children were hacked to pieces. Monday and Tuesday, trying to President Sukarno met with reestablish his authority and his cabinet at his palace in Bogor, 40 miles south of Jakarta, to discuss the crisis. Radio Malaysia, without giving the source of its report, said Sukarno sympathizer who is believed to have emerged from the meeting "looking quite well."

Reds At Meeting

The Malaysian Radio broadcast unconfirmed reports that two leading Communist party members of the cabinet, Mohammed Lukman and Njoto, attended the meeting. But there was no mention of Communist party chief D. N. Aidit, who is believed to have gone underground since the attempted coup. Army leaders accused Dhani in front of Sukarno of arming the rebels and demanding his dismissal, reports said.

Anti-Communist feeling was reported high in Jakarta. A major campaign to break the back of the Indonesian Communist party, the PKI, was said to be under way, and other political groups demanded that the PKI be banned.

Diplomatic observers in Jakarta said Sukarno must settle two important issues to avoid an explosion: His relationship with the army, and the status of the Indonesian Communist party.

The president met almost continuously with leaders in Bogor

Jobless Claims Hit State Low

MADISON (AP) — The number of Wisconsin persons filing claims for unemployment compensation is at its lowest level in 12 years, Gov. Warren Knowles was informed Tuesday.

The Unemployment Compensation Division placed the figure at less than 10,000. The exact total will not be known for a day or two.

Gov. Knowles noted that the number of jobless represents only about one per cent of the total work force covered by unemployment insurance. He commented:

"Wisconsin is indeed moving forward with more jobs, better incomes and greater opportunities for all of our people."

Weather Will be Cooler Tomorrow

Highways, Big Trucks

Knowles Instructs Fall Legislature

MADISON (AP) — The fall lower interest," said Nikolay, session of the Wisconsin Legislature has received its instructions from Gov. Warren P. Knowles — accelerate the construction of highways and keep 55-foot long trucks off of them.

"I will not, I simply cannot, and I hope you will not support the proposal at this time," the governor told lawmakers Tuesday by a vote of 4-1 and seriously dimmed prospects of the bill gaining the required two-thirds vote of the full Senate.

Knowles was equally emphatic about what he expected the Legislature to accomplish in a session that party leaders would like to hold to four weeks.

In addition to the highway construction speedup, the governor called for a bonding program to develop lands already acquired under the state's $50 that Scribner is a dentist and million outdoor recreation act, that the profession already is a 10-year renewal of the program, adoption of open housing legislation, water pollution curbs, and additional highway safety measures.

Another Session

The Republican chief executive said he would call another session of the Legislature next year to push through the water pollution controls and a general streamlining of state government.

"I'm glad he suggested that," said Sen. Walter Hollander, R-Rosendale, "because there just is not enough time in four weeks to accomplish what he has asked."

The highway and recreational land bonding proposal touched off criticism.

Assemblyman Frank Nikolay of Abbottsford, the Democratic majority floorleader of his house, said he opposed continued borrowing without the full faith and credit of the state.

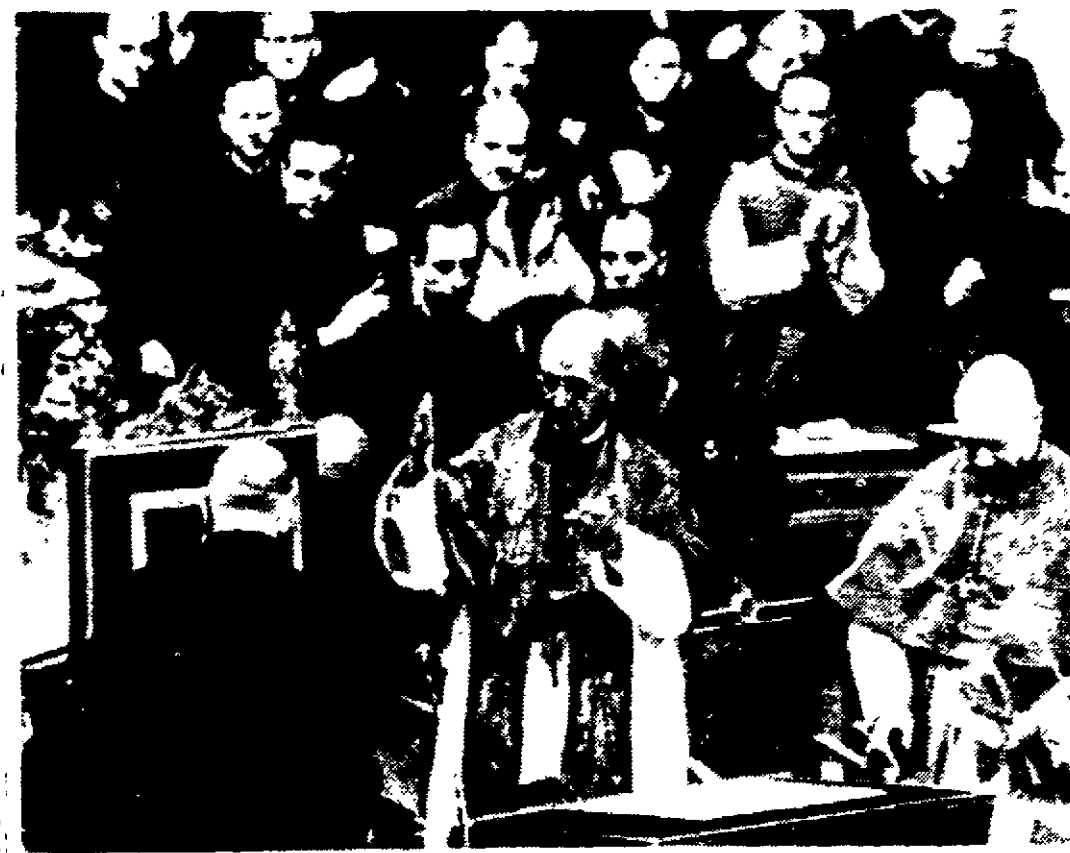

"We could change the constitution by April, 1967 and then borrow open and above board at

Murder Warrants Issued Against Milwaukee Pair

MILWAUKEE (AP) — First degree murder warrants were issued Tuesday against two unemployed tannery workers charged in the shotgun slaying of a liquor store owner.

The two men, Ronald K. Wasenaar, 31, and Terry L. Brzycki, 26, both of Milwaukee, had been charged with third degree murder and attempted armed robbery in the shooting of Charles Kahn, 61.

But Deputy Dist. Atty. Ben J. Wiener changed the charge to first degree murder after visiting the scene of the Sept. 29 shooting along with Dist. Atty. Hugh R. O'Connell and several detectives. Neither Wiener nor O'Connell would say why they changed their minds.

ology is so subtle it baffles the initiated. The irony is all in the inflection. "Outstanding" is a favorite military adjective, lifted from the hard prose of the fitness reports. Thus, a really great movie can be "outstanding" but so can a truly lousy one. And a mediocre one somewhere in the middle die, like an Italian Biblical epic from which all the sexy parts have been extracted by the censors, also can be written off as "outstanding".

"Charlie" is Viet Cong. If you find that confusing, consider the word "Charlie." Charlie, of course, stands for the Viet Cong, from the old international code alphabet initials Victor, Charlie. But a girl will refer to a big spending GI as a "good, good Charlie" and a piker as a "cheap, cheap Charlie," with no intended reflection on his loyalty. Here is a glossary of Viet-name war slang, not all of it original with this war but all of it in common daily usage: Goodies — Anything that arrives by convoy, supplies parachute, some bombs when directed at the enemy. No sweat — No trouble at all. No joy — No contact with the enemy. Just a long, long walk in the rice paddies. He's something else — He describes everything from fricassee to Klicks — Kilometers. Getting short — My tour of duty is almost finished here. "Zapped" — Killed in action, but popular usage also can carry less lethal meanings, as in getting drunk or finding an obnoxious soul mate. Garbage feast — One of those elaborate Vietnamese dinners where the menu is apt to include everything from fricassee to of python and roast dog to chicken heads supreme and barbecued rice-rat. Saigon tea — What the B-girls drink in the Saigon bars while their GI customers are getting zapped. Inspect my bunk for light leaks — A Navy expression, meaning to take an unauthorized look. Troi oi — Pronounced choy-oy, an all-purpose Vietnamese ex-pletive, roughly equivalent to the Jewish "oy voh." It can cover every conceivable mishap from stepping into a puddle to falling on a bamboo ponji stake. Low-level leaflet drop — Spending piasters like crazy along Tu Do Street, Saigon's gin-mill boulevard. Funny money — The script money issued to American troops in lieu of real dollars to combat inflation.

Badgers Hope To Improve on Running Game

UW Averaging Just Over One Yard Per Carry in 3 Tilts

MADISON (AP)—Nebraska's defensive line may look like a brick wall Saturday to Wisconsin's paltry running attack which has gained 128 yards in three football games.

In 101 carries, that figures out to a little more than one yard for every attempt. Against second-ranked Nebraska, Wisconsin will have to perform with more punch.

As almost all coaches will do, Nebraska's Bob Devaney said Tuesday that the undefeated Cornhuskers are apprehensive about their non-conference duel with Wisconsin at Lincoln.

"We have watched the movies of the Southern California-Wisconsin game," Devaney told Madison sportswriters and sportscasters in a long distance telephone interview.

"Our scout has brought us the report that Wisconsin has made

Colts' Bob Boyd Top Defensive Player of Week

Ron Kostelnik, of Packers, Also Gets AP Recognition

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
Bob Boyd was awarded the game ball by the Baltimore Colts Sunday for a superior defensive job in the Colts' 27-24 victory over San Francisco. His performance was enough to earn Associated Press recognition as the defensive player of the week in the National Football League.

The 27-year-old cornerback who had his troubles with Gary Collins in the championship game last December, intercepted two San Francisco passes and returned one for a touchdown on a 17-yard run.

He also made several outstanding tackles, at times taking down both blocker and ball carrier at the same time. Bernie Casey, his man, caught only one pass.

Great Season Again
"He was all-pro last season and he's having a great one again," Baltimore coach Don Shula told AP staffer George Bowen.

Ton Kostelnik of Green Bay earned a citation from staffer Ken Harmsen for his fine effort in the first half as a defensive tackle. The fifth year pro from the University of Cincinnati led a big rush against Chicago's Bill Wade forcing a fumble that stopped a touchdown threat.

If we had scored that first time it would have been a much different game," said Wade. Instead of a Bear score, the Packers moved to a TD and added another 20 seconds later on an interception.

Kostelnik broke into the Bear backfield twice, forcing a punting situation once and throwing Wade for an eight-yard loss the second time.

Jim Shorter, Washington defensive back, drew a recommendation from staffer Bernie Kennedy for his work in a losing cause at Detroit. Shorter intercepted a first-nered pass and ran it back 20 yards, setting up a field goal. He recovered a fumble in the second quarter, ending a Detroit drive. In the final period he grabbed another fumble and raced 54 yards for a score that put the Redskins back in the ball game.

Wayne Rasmussen of the Lions picked off two Washington passes and returned them 69 yards, including one 50-yarder for a TD.

Carl Lockhart, New York rookie corner back from North Texas State, played a key role in a victory over Pittsburgh. He set up the Giant's first score by returning an intercepted pass 19 yards to the Steeler 17 and knocked down a pass that could have given Pittsburgh the lead in the final period.

By MIKE RATHET
MINNEAPOLIS - ST. PAUL (AP) — Scrappy Billy Martin, generally credited with the sudden rise of Zoilo Versailles into the leading candidate for the most valuable player award, drew a parallel Tuesday between himself and the spark-plug Minnesota shortstop.

"I did for him what others like Casey Stengel and Frank Crosetti did for me," said Martin, referring to two of his former bosses with the New York Yankees. "I helped teach him little things. And I became his friend."

Too many people said bad things about Zoilo — like he'd quit in July," Martin went on. "But you've got to remember he has a Latin-American temperament. So I got friendly with him and though some of the problems he has may seem small to the outsider I've just adopted one attitude:

"Whatever it is — if it's big to him, it's big to me."

Martin, of course, was the Yankees' second baseman under Stengel for many years, received some notoriety because of his scrappiness and is generally considered to have utilized his limited skills to their fullest.

Becomes Aggressive
Versailles, meanwhile, was an adequate shortstop before Martin got hold of him, but has blossomed under the Twins' third base coach as an aggressive, flashy ballplayer who is a constant threat on the basepaths.

"He's learned the little things that make the difference," said Martin. "Crosetti (Yankee third base coach) used to tell me little things whenever I was on third base — like how to get set on a fly or what to do on a line drive that looked like it might be caught."

"I've tried to do the same with Zoilo. And what's happened is that he's become a more aggressive player."

Versailles has become so aggressive that he leads the team in stolen bases with 26, has been largely responsible for the Twins' new emphasis on speed and also has showed aggressiveness at the plate, hitting .273 with 19 homers.

What about the ballyhooed showdown between Versailles and Maury Wills, his counterpart with the Los Angeles Dodgers?

"I know this," Martin said. "Zoilo's going to be out there stealing bases no matter who he's playing against. It has nothing to do with Wills. Zoilo was eager to learn, he has learned and now he can go out and do it."

County Seeks Dismissal of Braves' Plea

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Milwaukee County asked the Federal Court Tuesday to dismiss the Milwaukee Braves' plea for an order giving it the legal right to play home games in Atlanta in 1966 and thereafter.

The County's motion argued that the Federal Court had no jurisdiction over the suit for declaratory judgment because there was no diversity of citizenship between the parties.

The Braves' principal place of business is in Wisconsin, the same state in which the County is a citizen, the motion said.

The County said U.S. District Judge Robert E. Tahan had so ruled in November, 1964, when he remanded back to a state circuit court an action by the County seeking a restraining order to prevent the Braves from moving to Atlanta in 1966. The Braves had petitioned to remove the action to Federal Court.

Unbeaten Packers Rank Ninth on Offense, Defense

49ers Have Gained Most Yards In NFL; Lions Tops Defensively

NEW YORK (AP) — The Green Bay Packers, undefeated in three starts, rank ninth statistically in the National Football League on both offense and defense.

On offense the Packers have gained 337 yards — 318 rushing and 519 passing—compared with 1,238 by top-ranked San Francisco, their opponent next Sunday at Lambeau Field in Green Bay. The 49ers also lead the NFL in passing yards, 811, and scoring, 103 points. San Francisco's rushing yardage totals 427.

Green Bay has scored 84 points against opponents' 40. San Francisco's opponents have scored 68 points.

In team defense, Green Bay has yielded 915 yards, 396 rushing and 519 passing.

NEW YORK (AP) — Detroit and defense again are synonymous. And the payoff has been three straight victories for the unbeaten Lions, despite an offense that ranks lowest in the National Football League.

NFL statistics released today show the Lions first in team defense, allowing 601 yards in their three games — 299 rushing and 302 passing. Detroit has gained only 65 more yards than it has allowed, however — 666, for 14th and last place.

The Lions are 12th in both running, 277 yards, and passing, 389 yards, and tied for eighth in scoring with 65 points.

San Antonio Boy Succumbs of Football Injuries

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — David Wood, 14, a member of the Dilley High School football team, died in a San Antonio Hospital Tuesday of injuries he received in a game with Carrizo Springs High School last Thursday.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester B. Wood of Dilley, Tex.

J. D. Nester, coach of the Dilley team, said he was about 20 feet away when Wood attempted to tackle a Carrizo Springs ball carrier and the runner's shoe heel hit Wood on the chin.

The coach said he ran immediately to the youngster, who lost consciousness in about two minutes. He remained in a coma until he died.

Truckers Will Duel Ghosts Saturday

New London To Invade Neenah Field

MID-EASTERN CONFERENCE

Clintonville	3	0
Neenah	3	0
Kimberly	2	1
Menasha	2	1
Kaukauna	1	2
New London	1	2
Shawano	0	3

BY TERRY GALVIN
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

The co-leaders of the Mid-Eastern Conference, Neenah and Clintonville, face stiff challenges before hometown fans Saturday in their heated race to the M-E title room.

Kaukauna's injury-riddled Ghosts, who after a 35-0 shellacking of Shawano are expected to be higher than the proverbial kuke, invade the Truckers' domain, bent on making up for lost time.

The Ghosts, a pre-season favorite along with Neenah, suffered through a pair of setbacks before notching an M-E win last Saturday.

Neenah's Rockets face the up-and-down New London Bulldogs. The defending Mid-Eastern titlist overwhelmed the Bulldogs, 76-0, in 1964. But the Larry Graves-coached New London eleven has looked better thus far this season, despite a 1-2 loop record.

Led by Linke

New London, led by fullback Henry Linke, a 219-pound battering ram, nearly upset Clintonville, but a nullified touchdown romp left the Bulldogs on the short end of an 18-14 final accounting. Last Friday, Kimberly's Papermakers took advantage of a Bulldog offensive lapse and posted a 7-0 victory.

Another key contest sends Menasha to Kimberly. Both teams share third place with 2-1 marks. The Papermaker defense is Coach Jack Wippich's forte. Menasha may still be smarting from its 56-0 loss to Neenah.

In addition to the Menasha-Kimberly contest Friday, Two Rivers will invade Shawano in a clash of winless teams.

Says Bavasi Eyes Franchise In Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Veteran Milwaukee Sentinel baseball writer Red Thisted says Buzzie Bavasi, general manager of the Los Angeles Dodgers is "very interested in the vacant Milwaukee franchise and hopes to do something about it."

Thisted, writing from Minneapolis, quoted an unnamed informant who is "no stranger to big league warfare although presently not so connected."

The source was quoted by Thisted as saying Bavasi "has his eyes on an American League franchise which he would move to Milwaukee."

This city will be left without a major league franchise when the Braves move to Atlanta in 1966.

Thisted wrote:

"The information does not say where, or how, this Bavasi coup is to come about, or what team he has in mind, but the report is that he has realized he will never become top man with the Dodgers and is seeking other fields to conquer. . . as to what American League franchise Bavasi might be interested in moving our informant is mute."

Griese Second In Offense

Wisconsin's Burt Third Among Nation's Passers

NEW YORK (AP) — Southern Mississippi's Vic Purvis, a quarterback on the run, is making an impressive early bid to become the first signal-caller ever to capture the national major college rushing title

Purvis, by rolling up 203 yards on the ground last week in his school's 28-7 victory over Richmond, exchanged places with Mike Garrett of Southern California, the previous leader, according to weekly NCAA statistics released today.

His second straight plus 200-yard game gave Purvis 476 rushing yards in three games and a four-yard edge over Garrett. The USC ace has carried the ball 88 times — 30 more than Purvis.

Record Pace Meanwhile, sophomore Billy Stevens of Texas Western continues to pace the total offense leaders despite his marked shortcomings as a ball carrier.

The Miners' quarterback, thrown for 129 yards in losses rushing, has passed for 1,106 more than any major college player ever has amassed in the season's first three games.

Stevens, with 977 net yards, leads runner-up Bob Griese of Purdue by 86. Purvis is third with 683 yards.

Tulsa's Bill Anderson, successor to Hurricane quarterback wizard Jerry Rhome, is the pass completion leader with 66 while his teammate, Howard Twilley, is No. 1 in pass catching with 30 receptions.

Bill Jackson of Marshall is the pacesetter in scoring, having run for all nine of his team's touchdowns in three straight victories. Garrett and Chuck Hughes of Texas Western share second place with seven touch- downs apiece.

Liska Picks Nebraska Over UW, Sees Win for Purdue

CHICAGO (AP) — This foot- ball season is turning into a Fall of Horrors for the guessing gents.

The Old Midwest SEER got SEARED four times as the grid- iron possums continued to tree the bounds last Saturday. He now stands 15-9 for the season.

With tightened crash helmet, here we go again: Michigan State 17, Michigan 14 — Michigan State only has to keep 286-pound Harold Lucas and 268-pound Buba Smith from stepping on the Golden Toe of team-mate Dick Kenney. The Big Ten champion Wolverines still have to muster an attack. The Spartans can throw aerial and ground sparks with Steve Juday. Gene Washington and Clinton Jones. That should spoil Michigan's Big Ten opener.

Purdue 20, Iowa 13 — SMU's Mustangs kicked Purdue into readiness for a sharp Big Ten debut. Wisconsin's passing tumbled Iowa, which really will see some fancy tossing when Bob Griese starts firing to Bob Had- rick and Jim Beirne. However, Hawkeye Gary Snook finally may be warmed up for a big downs to lead the Mountaineers, first in the nation in total of- fense, to a whopping 63-48 vic- tory over Pittsburgh. He also ran to outlast the favored, but crip- pled Gophers.

Nebraska 20, Wisconsin 14 — Chuck Burt's winning toss asso- ciated Press Back-of-the- pressure all is on second-ranked Nebraska.

Northwestern 14, Oregon State 7 — Don't be fooled by that 38-7 Notre Dame score over North- western. The Wildcats have a sound team and good running.

Notre Dame 24, Army 7 — Lots of pageantry, but the main marching will be done by Irish backs.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Fullback Keith Lincoln prac- ticed Tuesday for the San Diego Chargers and said he is ready to play in their American Football League game with Buffalo this weekend.

Lincoln has been out of action for over a month because of a pulled leg muscle and has not played in a regular season game.

Coach Sid Gillman said he will decide later in the week whether he will start Lincoln or rookie Gene Foster in the full- back spot.

Foster injured a knee in the Chargers' 31-14 win over Hous- ton, but probably will be ready to play.

Hugh McCrabb of Oklahoma State, another former backfield- er who switched to tackle, was high up in the weekly voting by sports writers and broadcasters. The 200-pound senior made the key defensive plays in State's surprise 17-14 triumph over Tul- sa.

Liska Picks Nebraska Over UW, Sees Win for Purdue

CHICAGO (AP) — This foot- ball season is turning into a Fall of Horrors for the guessing gents.

The Old Midwest SEER got SEARED four times as the grid- iron possums continued to tree the bounds last Saturday. He now stands 15-9 for the season.

With tightened crash helmet, here we go again: Michigan State 17, Michigan 14 — Michigan State only has to keep 286-pound Harold Lucas and 268-pound Buba Smith from stepping on the Golden Toe of team-mate Dick Kenney. The

Big Ten champion Wolverines still have to muster an attack. The Spartans can throw aerial and ground sparks with Steve Juday. Gene Washington and Clinton Jones. That should spoil Michigan's Big Ten opener.

Purdue 20, Iowa 13 — SMU's Mustangs kicked Purdue into readiness for a sharp Big Ten debut. Wisconsin's passing tumbled Iowa, which really will see some fancy tossing when Bob Griese starts firing to Bob Had- rick and Jim Beirne. However, Hawkeye Gary Snook finally may be warmed up for a big downs to lead the Mountaineers, first in the nation in total of- fense, to a whopping 63-48 vic- tory over Pittsburgh. He also ran to outlast the favored, but crip- pled Gophers.

Nebraska 20, Wisconsin 14 — Chuck Burt's winning toss asso- ciated Press Back-of-the- pressure all is on second-ranked Nebraska.

Northwestern 14, Oregon State 7 — Don't be fooled by that 38-7 Notre Dame score over North- western. The Wildcats have a sound team and good running.

Ohio State 17, Illinois 14 — The Buckeyes have the defense to give Illini fullback Jim Grabow- ski trouble.

Notre Dame 24, Army 7 — Lots of pageantry, but the main marching will be done by Irish backs.

Keith Lincoln, Of Chargers, May See First Action

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Fullback Keith Lincoln prac- ticed Tuesday for the San Diego Chargers and said he is ready to play in their American Football League game with Buffalo this weekend.

Lincoln has been out of action for over a month because of a pulled leg muscle and has not played in a regular season game.

Coach Sid Gillman said he will decide later in the week whether he will start Lincoln or rookie Gene Foster in the full- back spot.

Foster injured a knee in the Chargers' 31-14 win over Hous- ton, but probably will be ready to play.

Hugh McCrabb of Oklahoma State, another former backfield- er who switched to tackle, was high up in the weekly voting by sports writers and broadcasters. The 200-pound senior made the key defensive plays in State's surprise 17-14 triumph over Tul- sa.

Lloyd Phillips, Arkansas jun- ior tackle, also was singled out for making five unassisted tack- les and two assists against Tex- as Christian "Phillips is the best I ever saw at rushing the passer and still stopping the draw play," said Frank Broyles, Arkansas coach

Interesting Duel in Series, Matches Wills, Twins' Zoilo Versailles

By MIKE RATHET MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — The billing for the 1965 World Series could very well be read Maury Wills vs. Zoilo Versailles.

For as the Los Angeles Dodgers and Minnesota Twins met in the first game today, the most interesting match-up revolved around the two shortstops—both base-stealing threats and both leading candidates for Most Valuable Player Awards.

And despite the short time in which to study opposing pitchers both said they were ready to start sliding into second base. "It really only takes a minute to learn about a pitcher," said Wills. "I can look at a guy—the way he walks, how much agility he has—and tell about him. There's no secret about how I steal or take a lead—the big thing is doing it."

More Pressure "And I think in a Series there's more pressure on the pitcher than the base runner," said Wills, who stole 94 bases during the regular season. "The mental aspect of it is on the pitcher—the pressure, nerves, his confidence—and that affects whether I can steal."

Wills pointed out that Dodger scouting reports have already given him most of the information he needed. "I can rely mostly on the reports," he said. "Then when I get out there I can pick out something else—I'll find out a few more things. It's really basic. The rule book says a pitcher can only do certain things, so I watch the movement of hips or legs and that's enough."

Once I get on, though, I try not to think at all. I've developed my talents to do things instinctively. By the time I get to first base I've already made up my mind whether to go or not.

Usually Difference "You really don't have time to think—that's usually the difference between being safe and out."

What about playing against Versailles? Did Wills feel he had marked improvement over that game against Southern California," said Devaney. "Our thinking is that more improvement on offense will make Wisconsin a touch ball club."

Statistics from Wisconsin's first three games readily prove Devaney's point.

While Wisconsin gained 128 yards rushing, the Badgers three opponents — Colorado, Southern Cal and Iowa — have picked up 585 yards on 147 plays for an average of 3.9.

Halfbacks Jerry Hackbart and Tom Jankowski lead Wisconsin's runners. Hackbart, a senior, has carried the ball 21 times for 71 yards while Jankowski, a junior, has gained 59 yards in 22 attempts.

Nebraska has whipped its first three opponents with relative ease. After an opening 34-14 victory over Texas Christian, the Cornhuskers defeated Air Force 27-17 and Iowa State 44-0.

Met Only Once Wisconsin and Nebraska have met in football only once. The Badgers won the contest 18-0 on Nov. 2, 1961 at Milwaukee.

In Tuesday's practice, Coach Milt Bruhn continued to experiment at left halfback. Where he has used three different starters, Tom Schunke and Chuck Koch, who have been hampered by injuries this season, were tried at the running back spot.

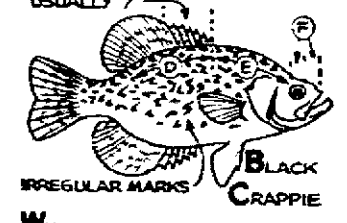

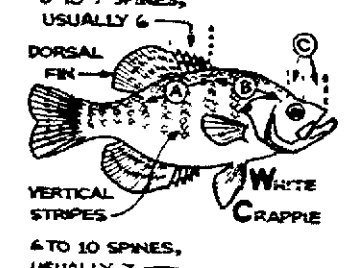

Tuesday along with speedy Tom Brigham who was moved over from the defensive unit. Brigham, one of the fastest men on the squad, returned a punt 49 yards for a touchdown last Saturday against Iowa.

Reserve back Jim Grudzinski was given a shot at Brigham's defensive post.

Jesse Kay, who has been a starter at left half, worked out strictly as a quarterback Tuesday, while Jankowski, another left half, was used at fullback on the second string. Hackbart, suffering from a sinus condition, was used as third string left half in this workout.

A Bit Brittle, That Hair Cream

OCALA, Fla. (AP) — There was more than hair cream in the tubes taken from two Marion County jail lodgers. "When I tried to bend the tubes, they wouldn't bend," said Sheriff Doug Willis Tuesday. "Then I found sections of hack saw blades hidden in each of the tubes."

Willis said the tubes were in toilet articles of Allen Stables, 25, and David Langlois, 32, state prisoners who were brought to Ocala to testify at a trial.

Doctors at a hospital said they couldn't find a thing wrong with him.

Twins Are 'For Real'

Minnesotans Can't Quite Believe They're Playing Host to Series

BY GEORGE MOSES MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — All signs pointed to a World Series opening here today, but you could find a surprising number of people in this north country who weren't quite ready to believe it until Jim Grant fired the first pitch to Maury Wills.

Sure, the big leagues came to this land of 10,000 lakes in 1961 when the Washington Senators became the Minnesota Twins.

But a World Series was something that happened in places like New York and San Francisco, and men named Mantle and Mays played in it. Now here it is, at Metropolitan Stadium in suburban Bloomington.

The other team is the Los Angeles Dodgers, and men like Harmon Killebrew and Tony Oliva and Zoilo Versailles are swinging at the pitches of Don Drysdale, and it all seems a little unreal to more people than would care to admit it.

In fact, the favorite question this summer when the Twins grabbed the American League lead and wouldn't let go was, "are the Twins for real?"

They were, and now the hotels are full, the restaurants are full, Metropolitan Stadium is full, and, inevitably, a few of the fans are full, too.

The 90 per cent of the fans who couldn't get any of the 46,000 tickets will be watching on television. The Series is expected to disrupt practically all local business.

It also appears to have made an honest man of the weather man. The entire month of September, in this northernmost Series site, was nasty enough to send ducks south—cold, windy and rainy. But when the Twins won the pennant, the sun came out and it got warm—relatively root for the Twins speaking. A high of 65, and no rain, with a hither's wind from the northwest is the outlook.

Flag-draped and baseball cranked buy straw hats and mugs. zy Minneapolis and St. Paul are and ash trays and lots of other two cities along the Mississippi items that promote the Twins, who feud about many things but the Series, and the vendors who who got together on the Twins, make them

As for the weather, Zoilo Versailles has had the last word. The star Twins' shortstop, a Patriots' offense, which has managed just 44 points in the final workout and observed. "I Garrison has been sedledmed tournament city, but St. hope it's 30 tomorrow. Those since he suffered a broken col of lardbone in an exhibition game against the Houston Oilers Aug 21

Major Actions Kill 260 of Viet Cong, Government Says

Light Losses Among Vietnamese Reported in Highlands, Delta

By EDWIN Q. WHITE
SAIGON (AP) — The Vietnamese army claimed its forces killed 260 Viet Cong in major operations in the central highlands and the Mekong Delta this week, a U.S. military spokesman reported today. The casualty claims were not confirmed by U.S. body counts. The Vietnamese claimed 220 guerrillas dead following heavy fighting Monday during a government sweep in the southernmost province of An Xuyen.

They said another 40 Viet Cong were killed and 28 captured in an action in Binh Dinh Province. Light government losses were reported. The operation in Binh Dinh, 305 miles northeast of Saigon, reopened a portion of strategic Highway No. 1 which the Communists had cut. The spokesman said.

U. S. Count
U.S. authorities said 1,067 Viet Cong, 229 government troops and 17 Americans were killed in action last week. Air strikes accounted for most of the Viet Cong losses. Vietnamese officials Tuesday put the Viet Cong dead for the week at 1,767. But this included an estimate of 700 enemy dead in heavy fighting near the Phu Cu Pass, in Binh Dinh Province.

Debate on Armaments Underway in Vatican

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican Ecumenical Council moved into the heart of its debate on world armaments today in the wake of Pope Paul's historic peace mission to the United Nations.

Fine lines were expected to be drawn in the speeches in St. Peter's Basilica setting forth general principles on the quantity and quality — nuclear or conventional — of defensive arms. The 2,200 council fathers are debating the fifth and last chapter of their document on modern world problems. The chapter is on "The Building of Peace."

It contains a strong condemnation of total war, saying any war action aimed at destroying entire cities or regions and their inhabitants is a crime against God and man.

The text asks efforts toward total elimination of modern arms but recognizes that possessing arms to discourage "an eventual aggressor" is not illegitimate.

When the section was first debated a year ago, the text opposed nuclear weapons of any kind for any reason. Some bishops — notably Philip M. Hannan, then Washington's auxiliary bishop and now archbishop of New Orleans, and Archbishop George A. Beck of Liverpool, England — argued that nations had a right to defensive nuclear arms.

The current text reflects that

U.N. Trip Strengthens Expectation Of Papal Visit Behind Iron Curtain

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The impact of Pope Paul's visit to the United Nations strengthened a growing impression here today that his next foreign trip will take him into the Communist world.

The handshake and animated conversation the pontiff had with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko at the United Nations has added to this impression.

Poland appeared the Red country most likely to receive the Pope.

When he returned from New York Tuesday, the Pope vowed he would "continue to work as much as possible for world peace."

Continue to Travel
Observers took this to mean that he would also continue to travel, personally carrying the gospel of peace wherever he felt it would serve mankind.

Many in Vatican circles are convinced that Pope Paul's three flights outside Italy have smoothed the way for a personal peace pilgrimage into a Com-

Castro Names Industry Minister

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — Joel Domenech was named Cuba's industries minister today, succeeding Ernesto Guevara.

Prime Minister Fidel Castro announced three days ago that Guevara resigned the post last April and left Cuba to conduct revolutionary activities in another country. He did not identify the country.

Domenech was previously secretary-general of the Communist party in Havana Province. Jose A. Naranjo was named to replace him.

Surgery Set for Friday

Johnson Gall Bladder Trouble Apparently Less Serious Type

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson apparently is suffering from the less serious of two forms of an ailment that plagues thousands of his fellow Americans — a poorly functioning gall bladder with the formation of stones.

This was indicated both by the wording of his announcement Tuesday that he will undergo surgery Friday, and by the fact that a month has passed since Johnson suffered his first reported attack on Sept. 7.

All information released thus far from the White House indicates that the gallstones are limited to the gall bladder itself or to a small pipeline leading out of it — and that none has plugged a more vital channel lower down in the body.

Stones Not Uncommon

When the stones go farther, more extensive surgery is required and usually it is performed on an urgent basis soon after the ailment is diagnosed.

Gallstones are not uncommon. They cause trouble for about 25 per cent of all women and 10 per cent of all men and 10.

They vary in size, and sometimes remain in the gall bladder for a long time without causing serious symptoms.

The gall bladder is a pear-shaped organ that lies near, and partially attached to, the liver, in the upper right section of the abdomen.

Its function is to receive, concentrate and store a fluid called bile which is manufactured in the liver.

The bile is needed for the digestion of fats and fatty substances in the small intestine.

Stored Until Needed

Some unconcentrated bile goes direct from the liver to the intestine all the time. More of it flows to the gall bladder, to be stored temporarily in the gall bladder until it's needed at mealtime, particularly a meal with a high content of fatty foods.

The pipeline for bile released from the gall bladder is a small tube, about the diameter of a pencil, called the cystic duct.

This pipeline, and another one from the liver, form the top part of the letter "Y" — and together they converge to form a main channel leading to the intestine. The latter is called the "common bile duct."

If a gallstone wanders from the gall bladder and gets stuck in the cystic duct, severe knife-like pain can result, sometimes along with nausea, vomiting and a slight fever. Sometimes, such a stone will fall back into the gall bladder, whereupon the attack passes. The stone can even remain in this small duct without demanding urgent surgery, but surgery may be indicated later — as seemingly happened in Johnson's case.

Doctors sometimes recommend surgery even when the

Chicago to Get Funds Held From Schools

Committee Named To Study Allegation Of Discrimination

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago public schools will receive the $30 million in federal funds withheld from them last week, says Frank M. Whiston, president of the Chicago Board of Education.

The money will be released today, Whiston announced Tuesday after an all-day conference with an official of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Francis Keppel, U.S. commissioner of education, ordered the funds held up Friday because of reports of noncompliance with the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

Rep. Roman C. Pucinski, D-Ill., said in a telephone interview from Washington that Whiston gave the office of education "a way to save face by promising to appoint a five-man school board committee to look into alleged noncompliance with the Civil Rights Act."

Action Unsupported

Pucinski said that Keppel's action "was based entirely on a memorandum that was entirely unsupported by evidence." He did not elaborate.

Whiston met Tuesday with Undersecretary Wilbur J. Cohen. Whiston refused to say if President Johnson had any part in the release of funds. But he did say he was told that Mayor Richard J. Daley had talked with President Johnson in New York City Monday when both were there for the visit of Pope Paul VI.

Dr. Edwin C. Berry, head of the Chicago Urban League, said he was pleased that the funds would be reallocated, but added that the federal action served not to the Board of Education that it "must straighten up and fly right."

Last July, Albert C. Raby, convener of the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations, asked the Office of Education to withdraw federal funds, charging that Chicago public schools had consistently followed a policy of racial segregation. Raby's council has led a series of demonstrations against School Supt. Benjamin C. Willis. It claims Willis is responsible for de facto segregation of schools.

Civil Rights Trials

Dirksen Vows to Fight Personal Security Bill He Finds 'Astounding'

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposal that Congress take away the authority of state courts to try criminal cases involving civil rights was labeled as "astounding" today by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois.

Dirksen, the Senate Republican leader, made it clear he would fight a legislative measure of this nature. It was suggested by Joseph L. Rauh, counsel for the National Leadership Council on Civil Rights.

Rauh said civil rights leaders are considering a request to Congress next year for enactment of what he called "personal security" legislation to cap the 1964 Public Accommodations Act and the 1965 voting rights bill.

Rauh said that the recent action of a Hayneville, Ala., jury in acquitting Thomas L. Coleman of manslaughter in the slaying of Jonathan M. Daniels, 27, a civil rights worker, sparked demands for making any assault for racial purposes a federal crime.

Traditional Jurisdiction
Dirksen, who helped whip both previous civil rights acts into shape and helped provide the votes for their passage, said Rauh's proposal not only would nullify states' rights but would wipe out their traditional jurisdiction in criminal cases.

"It is an astounding proposal," he said. "It would create an amazing state of affairs by further eroding the rights of the states. If this erosion continues, soon there will be no state governments left."

Asked about the proposal in a separate interview, Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said that Chicago funds, charging that Chicago public schools had consistently followed a policy of racial segregation. Raby's council has led a series of demonstrations against School Supt. Benjamin C. Willis. It claims Willis is responsible for de facto segregation of schools.

Johnson announced Tuesday the appointment of Philadelphia attorney William T. Coleman Jr., a Negro, and Morris B. Abram, New York lawyer and first general counsel of the Peace Corps, as vice chairmen of the November conference. He previously had designated A. Philip Randolph, president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, as chairman.

Johnson said in a statement that the issue of Negro rights is "the nation's most difficult domestic problem." He said the country is entering a difficult phase in efforts to bring Negroes into full participation of national benefits and responsibilities.

10 Most Wanted List

Boyle Readies Punch In Nose for Book Thief

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — One of the things I cannot understand about the Federal Bureau of public duty here is that in its periodic listing of America's 10 catch and bring to justice bank most-wanted criminals it never busters and kidnapers and fellows who have ridden a stolen horse across state lines.

But sometime when the FBI isn't fully occupied in protecting our freedoms and our other properties, I wish it would catch a book thief. I don't want the FBI to bring the culprit to justice. I want the FBI to bring him to me, so I can first punch him in the nose and then give him a fair trial.

I also want to sit him on a teetering stool in a darkened room, flash a spotlight into his startled eyes, and relentlessly grill him as to the nature of his felonies.

Because of my job, I am sent a couple of hundred books a year by publishers. I also buy about 50 a year.

Those I wish to keep I put in a bookcase near my desk. Recognizing, however, there is the requirement for the expression of larceny in every human heart, I put the rest of the books on top of the bookcase.

It is okay with me if those on top are browsed among, borrowed or stolen.

So what happens? The books I want to refer to are almost invariably stolen. But most of the books I put out to be stolen stay there and stay there and stay there.

In my spare time I try to

If a book has a glossy cover and is priced above $5.95, it invariably disappears. The thief who takes it rather disappoints me, as I think he has greed in his heart rather than literary appetite.

If a new book hasn't made the best seller list the week I put it on top of the bookcase, it is undisturbed. If it makes the best seller list the following week, it will disappear immediately.

Self-improvement books such as "How to Make the Most of Your Life" just collect dust. But it is entitled "How to Win at the Races," it is instantly stolen.

Certain books appear to be thief-proof. These include any book about religion, most books about politicians, and all books about communism.

For example, atop my bookcase now are biographies of John V. Lindsay, Adam Clayton Powell, and one called "Robert Kennedy in New York," which I haven't opened yet but suspect is probably a guide book for tourists.

Also resting undisturbed there are books entitled "Culture," "The Decision to Drop the Bomb," and a fascinating history of the Sheraton hotel system, room by room.

A couple of books I put out as test examples also have remained undisturbed. They are "The Testament in Modern English" and "How to Read the Bible" by Edgar J. Goodspeed.

Any book dealing with sex, of course, is stolen before my own fingerprints on it cool off.

I have learned only one sure way to foil book thieves. If there is a volume I particularly cherish and wish to keep for future reference, I throw away its dust jacket and cover it with the dust jacket of a book called "The Integrity of the Personality."

Nobody will then come near it but me.

Newspaper Boys Furnish Banks With 50 Cent Coins

It's a closely guarded secret, but the major source of at least one Appleton bank for highly prized 50 cent pieces is newspaper carrier boys.

The youths who collect for their weekly deliveries have apparently cracked the secret of putting the long-lost 50 cent pieces back into circulation.

But even with their efforts, the coin is a relative stranger now on the current currency scene.

Anyone who now has a 50 cent piece in his pocket is the possessor of a hot collector's item and probably won't have the coin long. Chances are, if it is exchanged, it will end up in a collector's secret hiding place soon.

Declares Coin Dead

There just isn't a 50 cent piece around anymore, William Doering, manager of the south-side Super Valu Store in Appleton said. He recently declared the 50 cent piece dead by converting his coin changes to eliminate the slot for the coin.

Gall Bladder X-Rays May Not Show Results

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: I had several X-rays of my gall bladder but nothing showed. All the information I can get from the hospital is that the result could be for "many reasons." — W.S.

Dear Doctor: I was X-rayed for gall bladder trouble but the doctor couldn't get a picture. He said my gall bladder wouldn't absorb the dye and that this usually meant the organ was full of stones. I've had some trouble for about five years but it hasn't been bad since I've been taking medicine. I still have indigestion pains that go through me and under my right shoulder blade. Do you think I should have the gall bladder removed. When a gall bladder quits working, does it ever start working again? — Mrs. P.N.

Let's first describe how a gall bladder is X-rayed.

When X-raying soft tissues, you have to arrange the object so the parts you want will show up. The useful but not always appreciated barium enema fills the colon with a material which will be opaque. The rays will pass easily through the surrounding soft tissues. So the shape of the colon shows up sharp and clear.

With X-ray of arteries, a dye is injected into the blood stream for the same purpose — to make the arteries show clearly.

And ditto for the gall bladder. Normally that organ is constantly accepting concentrated bile from the liver, to be discharged into the small intestine at meal times because the bile is a powerful digestive fluid. We can introduce a dye which will be taken up by the liver and, thus reaching the gall bladder, will show us that organ in clear outline.

Well, suppose bile isn't flowing into the gall bladder in normal quantity? The dye won't

Inform Voters On Bond Issue

Kimberly School Board Indicates Referendum Stand

KIMBERLY — The board of education has mailed an informational sheet to all residents of the school district, giving particulars on the Oct. 12 referendum in which the board hopes to be authorized to float a $425,000 bond issue to complete the second floor of the senior high school and build additions to the music and industrial arts departments at the school.

The pamphlet indicates the district needs classrooms and teachers for 450 additional children for the 1966-67 school year. This includes an anticipated increase of 250 plus the 200 second grade children who normally would attend Holy Name School, which will not offer second grade instruction next year.

Utilization of the second floor of the high school for kindergarten, first, second, third and fourth grade classrooms will give the board more time to set up an efficient future building program.

More Classrooms
It is anticipated the district will need an additional 50 classrooms within the next 10 years.

The second floor area will be utilized for elementary purposes until 1968-69 when it is anticipated the space will be needed by the high school. The board recently purchased land on the west side of Kimberly where proposed plans call for construction of an elementary school of eight to 12 classrooms.

Voting will be held at the John R. Gerrits Junior High School gym from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. next Tuesday. Completion of the second floor would provide 13 regular classrooms and a large, three-room, biology area.

The Coffee Hour

BY LILLIAN MACKESY
Post-Crescent Food Editor

Coffee . . . steaming hot and served black or in combination with a myriad of things . . . has come a long way socially since it was first discovered in Arabia. Today, its use has spread to every corner of the world and the fragrant brew is no less important on the American scene than in other parts of the world.

On goes the coffeepot when a neighbor runs over for a minute . . . coffee is the symbol of friendship after church services . . . it's served to afternoon visitors and after-dinner coffee has become a tradition in many Fox Cities homes.

The coffee break, of course, long has been around and the legend is that it all started right in Wisconsin. The citizens of Stoughton stoutly claim that the custom all began in the 80-year-old houses which still stand on block-long Coffee Street near the now long-gone Gunderson tobacco warehouse. The time was in the 1880s when the women worked in the tobacco houses during the stemming season. The menfolk were busy building farm wagons and tending to their other year-round jobs.

The women and girls used to run home during the day to check on their young fry and their homes. Being good Norwegians . . . they tarried a minute for their usual cup of coffee. And thus, Stoughton claims, was born the first coffee break.

To make the coffee hour more interesting . . . whether it's a committee meeting, political rally, church session or just a relaxing afternoon or evening . . . we suggest several go-togethers with coffee as well as a sort of United

Coffee-and-desert parties are more fashionable today among the young marrieds than dinner parties. It costs considerably less, yet hospitality and sociability are just as warm. Here, a delightful Poppy Seed Ring Cake with its delicately crunchy texture matches the informal mood and still proves a delight.

One important tip: Be sure your coffee is at its delicious best with both spirit and strength. The rule, One part coffee to six parts water and you'll make a perfect brew, whether you measure with a measuring cup, a camper's tin can or your grandmother's best gravy boat. Time the brewing, then serve fresh, hot and frequently.

For United Nations Day try an international touch by serving several variations based on preferences of people in other lands. For instance, at the left are four coffee versions such as Spicy Joe, far left, then the rich demitasse in the Latin American style of Cafe Mexicano, rich Cafe de Belgique and, at the right, Italy's famed espresso coffee.

for Mrs. Chandler means that she has given up her office on the national board of the Lutheran Church Women and will center her activities around her position on the National Council of Churches and her 13 grandchildren.

Mrs. Chandler held her post with the Lutheran Church Women, the official auxiliary of the Lutheran Church in America, for nine years. The organization functions through local church boards in such areas as overseas, home and social missions and vocations. Mrs. Chandler has served on the field service committee which provides guidance and directive to local churches on how to conduct their business.

At Convention

A highlight of Mrs. Chandler's service with the Lutheran Church Women was the triennial national convention at Cleveland, Ohio, in August. The approximately 1,000 delegates participated in the convention theme, "God Calls Us to Practice Love and Justice in Human Relations."

Mrs. Chandler is now serving her second three-year term of office on the executive board of the National church appointment. The office sends her all over the country to board meetings and committee meetings for the overseas ministries committee of which she is also a member.

The opportunity to see a great deal of the nation is just one of many rewards Mrs. Chandler reaps. She enjoys taking side trips in her spare moments during meeting and convention times. "I make it a point to take advantage of where I go," she says. For example while in New Mexico, Mrs. Chandler is likely to take off on a day's trip to California.

She states that the driving goal in all her church-related activities is that she has always been "anxious that all people know Christ."

On Local Level

Now that her national activities are confined to the National Council of Churches, Mrs. Chandler hopes that she can become more active in her local church affairs. Fall plans include a committee meeting in Nashville, Tenn., and the Wisconsin-Upper Michigan synod women's convention at Trinity Lutheran Church Oct. 7 through 9.

She plans to relax a little and spend more time with her

Her Lover, Unfortunately, Has Everything, Including a Wife

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Seemingly, I am not ashamed. The one month ago I met a man, Ann, I am not ashamed. The who has everything I want in a ring is beautiful and further husband. Unfortunately he also more. it's what he can afford has a wife

Vic ever tried to deceive me so blinded by love that I don't He told me the evening we met. see the practical side of things that he had married a girl who was pregnant by somebody else because he was afraid she'd take the gas pipe if somebody didn't help her out

He wants to marry me but he can't because he is not divorced. A divorce would cost $450 and he just hasn't got it. Vic is a mailman and his take-home pay is $77 a week. He already owns a finance company $76 a month for his car.

I have a good job and money saved. I have begged Vic to let me give him $450 for a divorce but he refuses. He was raised old-fashioned and he has too much self-respect to take money from a woman so we are living together as man and wife. Help Please — CBH

Dear CBH: So Vic was raised old-fashioned and he has too much self-respect to take money from a woman? But he thinks it's all right to move in with you. Apparently he doesn't have quite enough self-respect to cover THAT situation, so how about supplying a little of your own? Get that free-loading postman out of your house and tell him to file you under "address unknown" until he is free to offer you marriage.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'd like to say a word to the fifth grade teacher who signed herself "Steaming Mad." She says it is unfair to blame the teacher when kids get to high school and can't read. According to her, parents should keep checking their kids to find out if they can read. If they can't she says the parents should teach them at home or hire a tutor.

That teacher is out of her mind. I am a working mother. My children need an education. I am not trained to teach them at home. They must learn at school. That's why I send them. That's why I pay taxes.

My oldest boy just started college. He was told he has the reading ability of a fifth grader and that he'll have to take a reading course. I remember now that his fifth grade teacher was a chaser who was tossed out for playing games with the principal. That's the year he stopped learning to read. So let's put the blame where it belongs — Also Mad.

Dear Also: While your son enrolls in a reading course why don't you take a course in logic? Your reasoning is out of this world, Mother.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I've been going with the most wonderful boy in the world. We are both 23. Last night he gave me an engagement ring and I was so happy I cried. I could hardly wait 'til morning to show the ring to my folks. My mother looked at it and said "The diamond is so small. Aren't you

If excessive drinking is wrecking your health or destroying someone you love, send for Ann Landers' booklet, "Help For The Alcoholic," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Matriarch of Fruit Market Has Champagne Birthday

By BOB COOKE

LOS ANGELES (AP) — One morning the fruit and vegetable market went nuts.

Dora "Mama" Kaplan — matriarch of the fruit stands, produce trucks and farm products — had a birthday party Wednesday, a wee hours whopper.

Mamma, in navy blue and sporting a big orchid corsage, was all a-bubble — along with 25 cases of champagne, seven big rum cakes and a three-piece combo aboard a flatbed truck.

Fellow market occupants chorused, to the tune of "Hello, Dolly."

"Hello, Dora. Yes, Mama," Dora.

We remember when you wore some other people's shoes.

Pulled horse and buggy, Dora.

Drove trucks to the fields, Dora.

To pick up daily every farm-fresh produce.

She had done all that, and in 35 years built her business, Kaplan's Fruit and Produce Co., into a $10 million a year enterprise.

Russian Born

But it was a long row to hoe, stretching all the way back to Russia.

Dora Kaplan was born in Odessa, the Ukraine. She was orphaned at 9, and friends paid what to do with yourself at her way to America, where she home. You have to work.

factory before coming West Wednesday she turned 64, and folks at the produce market decided a party was in order.

It started at 3 a.m., when the produce trucks began rolling in. Greeting friends, Mama stood beside a 10-foot-high artificial cake garnished with fresh corn, lettuce, apples, radishes and gilded pineapples.

"Mama," exclaimed one young man as he shook her hand and kissed her cheek.

"Baby," cried another. "I know them all," Mama said. "Some of them I brought up. They came young here."

Workers in all corners of the busy market snatched a little time to come over and wish Mama a happy birthday as trucks came in bearing tons of apples, peaches, pears, cantaloupes and cabbage.

No Retirement

And the combo launched into Mama's theme song "Tomatoes are cheaper, potatoes are cheaper, now's the time to fall in love."

"Yes," Mama recalled. "I've been coming down here for 35 years, every day. I used to work 'til 2, but now I go home at 10 o'clock."

Could this also be a retirement party? No.

"You work all your life," Mama said. "You don't know what to do with yourself at home. You have to work."

Mama's son-in-law, Harry Molin, is now president of her company and her son, Milton, works there. A second son, David, is a college faculty member. Her husband, Harry, is retired from his furniture store job.

As the party gathered steam, the band played "Besame Mucho" — Spanish for "Kiss Me Much."

"Ah," Mama sighed. "He knows. That's my favorite. Have some champagne, everybody."

"What happened here?" the policeman asked as he inspected the body slumped over the bridge table. "He couldn't get out of his own way," was all the surviving players would tell him.

A kibitzer described the play of the last hand, and the policeman made an entry in his notebook: Got in the way of a bullet.

South began by getting in his own way. He ruffed the opening lead, drew four rounds of trumps and took dummy's top hearts. Then he ruffed a club with his last trump and led a heart to knock out the queen.

East returned a diamond to dummy's ace, and dummy had only clubs left so had to give up two tricks to West. The defenders collected 200 points, and South collected a bullet.

so many chances to make his contract. Most of them involved discarding the ace of diamonds from the dummy.

The most elegant play is to draw trumps and discard the ace of diamonds on the fourth trump. South then cashes his own diamonds, discarding dummy's ace and king of hearts. Declarer leads the jack of hearts to force out the queen and wins the rest with the last trump and the rest of the hearts.

South would make the contract if he cashed the ace of diamonds after taking dummy's top hearts, or even if he discarded the ace of diamonds when leading the jack of hearts from his hand. East would have to return a heart or a diamond, and South could win the rest in his own hand.

Even Relatives Should Pay Fair Cash Rent for Housing

BY MARY FEELEY

Dear Miss Feeley:

My mother-in-law is 82 and was never very business-minded, even in her young days. She now is renting her apartment upstairs for only $60 a month. It's a touchy situation — because my daughter and son-in-law live there with their two children.

Each quarter my mother-in-law has had me go to the bank to draw out money from her savings account to pay the taxes on her house. This must stop, as there is no longer any savings account to draw on.

She receives $66 a month Social Security, and that's all the income she has. The taxes on her house are approximately $440 per year, and liability insurance about $20 a year. Fuel runs about $250 a year, water about $7 a quarter. She spends about $10 a week for her food, also has to pay for her gas and electric bills, and any medicine.

Please help me arrive at a fair rental that she should charge for that upstairs apartment, which will pay the taxes at least.

A. H. Peekskill, N.Y.

Dear Mrs. H.:

Talk to your daughter and son-in-law just like you're talking to me.

I should think they could well afford to pay more rent — where else in the world could they get quarters for four for $60 a month? And they should certainly feel morally obligated to share your concern.

Of course, if your daughter and family move out, this 82-year-old woman will have only uncaring strangers in her home. Who will show concern if she's ill in the middle of the night — or needs to be driven to town to see the doctor or buy something in a store? The emotional security of having her own family in the house has undoubtedly persuaded her to let this apartment go so cheap. But is that fair?

Surely $80-$85 a month is as reasonable a rent as your daughter and her family could expect to find. I think all of you will be happier if they voluntarily raise their rent. After all, your mother-in-law's basic expenses for the home are $738 a year — which breaks down to $61.50 a month.

Dear Miss Feeley:

My son, 19, has just acquired his first full-time job. He earns $70 a week before deductions. He has a small foreign secondhand car which he needs to get back and forth to work. He lives at home, and my question is this:

How should he budget his income to include room, board, shirt laundry ($125 weekly), car maintenance, car insurance, lunches, savings, clothes, and recreation

Mrs. E.M.B., Cincinnati, Ohio

Dear Mrs. B.:

Let's say your son actually has $56 a week clear income. All things being normal — which they practically never are, I admit — you could expect him to contribute one-fourth of his take-home pay toward room and board. This would be $14 a week.

But let's take a look at the rest of his weekly expenses. Clothing (and upkeep), $7; savings and insurance, $5; lunches, $10; recreation, $8; car expenses (insurance, maintenance, gas and oil), $12. So there goes his whole $56. In this day and age it would surely be difficult for a young man to have even one, let alone two, dates a week on $8. But he does have to pay for his car and his transportation, which is a business necessity. I think he should be encouraged to have a regular savings account and to take out some life insurance while he's young and the premiums are low.

If he feels too pinched on this budget, maybe you could make do with a little bit less for room and board — say $10 instead of $14 a week. He also needs something, remember, for church contributions and gifts.

While I certainly believe that any wage-earner in the home should carry his own freight, I know that too heavy a burden can discourage a young man on his first job. See if you can ease up a little at this point.

You can write to Mary Feeley in care of The Post-Crescent, Appleton, Wis., 54910. Questions of general interest will be answered in her column, if space permits.

Modesty Not Part of New Fashion

CHICAGO (AP) —The director of a commercial high school says a girl can't be modest nowadays if she wants to. But he's fighting the trend with a hemline inspection every morning for the Jones girls.

Director Clarence B. Casey of the Jones Commercial High School concluded sadly Thursday: "Even if a girl wants to be modest, she can't succeed today. The dress designers won't allow it."

But Carey refuses to surrender to the hemline raisers with a daily battle.

All Jones girls — about 200 — must stand hemline inspection each morning when they report for class. When a Jones girl for class wears a dress that shows more than half the knee, she is ordered to let the hemline down — immediately.

"Many of these kids are sincere about being modest," he said. "They scream that you can't buy dresses these days with enough hemline to let down to the knee."

"Above all," he added, "the Jones girls must present a businesslike appearance. We are training these girls for office positions."

The hemline check is the latest measure taken at Jones to turn out businesslike girls. Hats, heels and gloves previously were required daily apparel.

Adeline Heinz, grooming instructor and chief knee inspector at Jones, lamented: "Knees are women's most unattractive features. I can't understand why the girls want to show them."

YOU MAY HAVE PIN-WORMS AND NOT KNOW IT

Fidgeting, nose-picking, a tormenting mental ring are often telltale signs of Pin Worms. Ugly parasites that medical experts say infect 1 out of every 3 persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it. Forgetful of Pin Worms, they must be killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do . . . and here's how they do it.

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

The Ailing House Don't Put Baby Grand In Basement

BY ROGER C. WHITMAN

Q Would it harm a baby grand piano to be in a basement recreation room? It seems dry in winter, it's warm enough in summer. But what about in the summer?

— Baltimore

A You've pretty well answered your own question, by admitting there's summer dampness in the basement. If the piano is valuable, I'd recommend against the idea, but then you take away a lot of fun. You can minimize the problem by driving the air with a dehumidifier as well as thorough ventilation when the weather is clear and dry. To keep the strings and felt pads dry, fasten one of those great "damper chaser" electric air-warming devices inside the case. This is a rod-shaped aluminum covered heater which gently warms and circulates air in confined spaces. Burns only the equivalent of a 25-watt bulb. Very widely used to keep dampness out of pianos (especially in seaside houses) and TV sets. Available at most electrical dealers. Not expensive.

Q I would like to refinish a mirror, but I need information on how to remove the present silvering on the back. It's very worn, even has some holes here and there. Columbus.

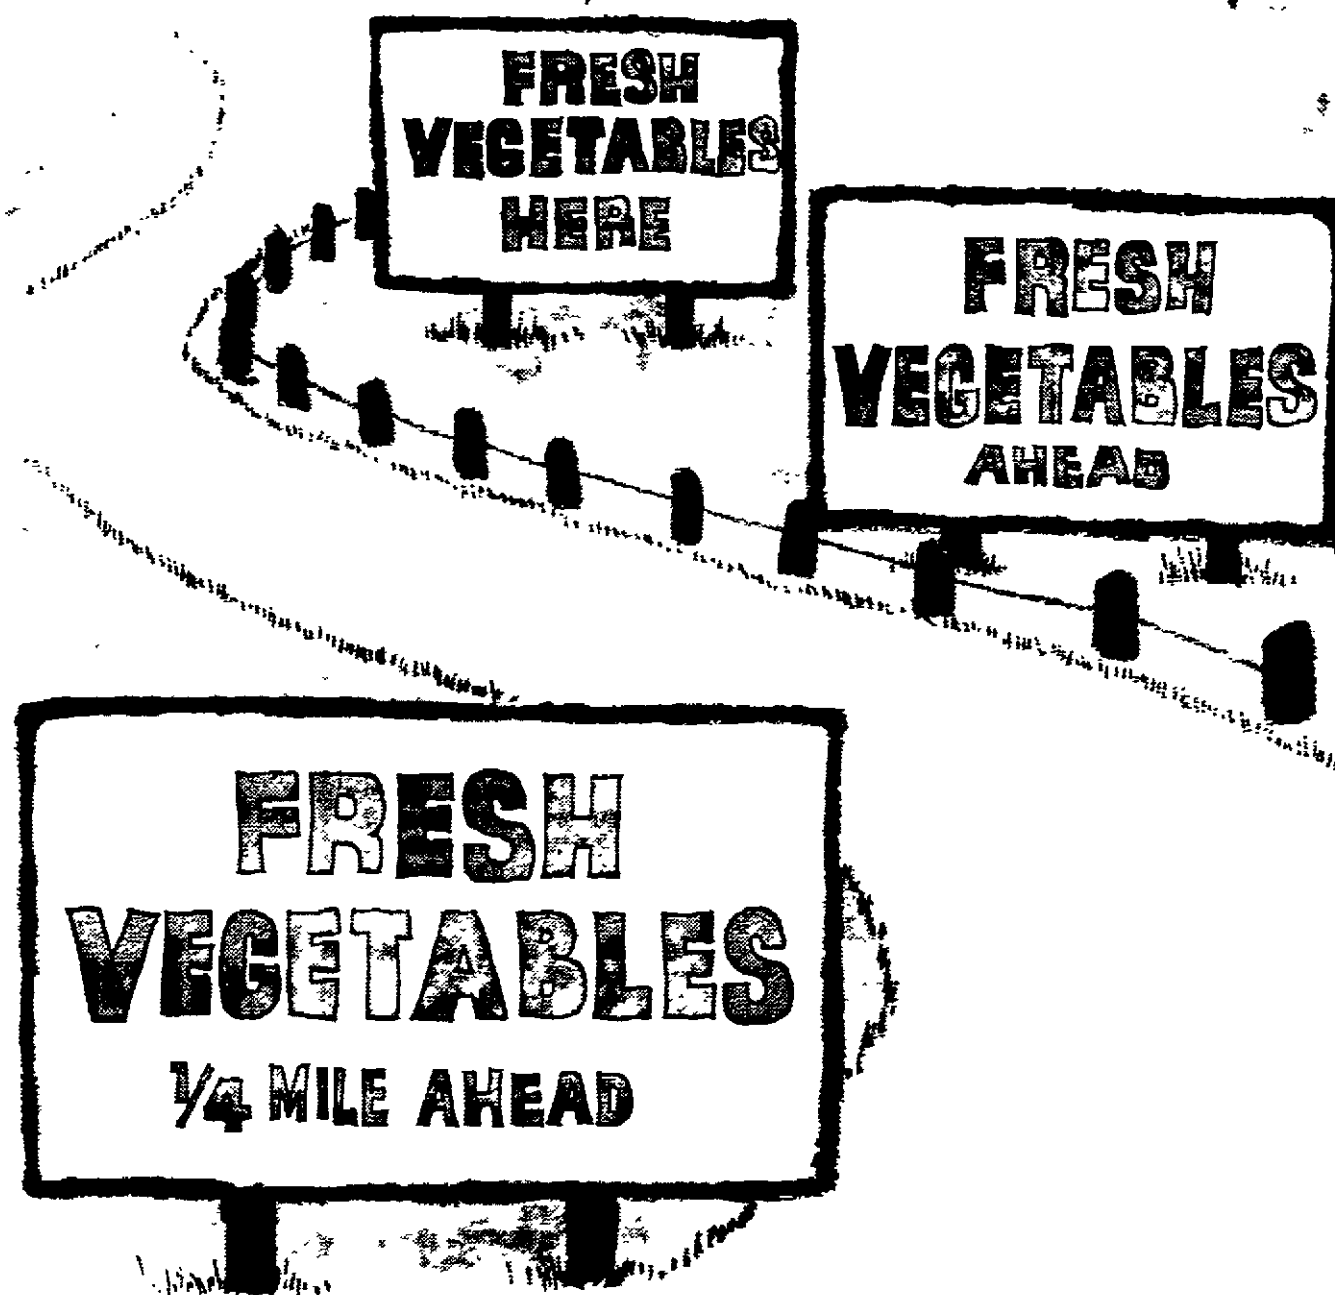

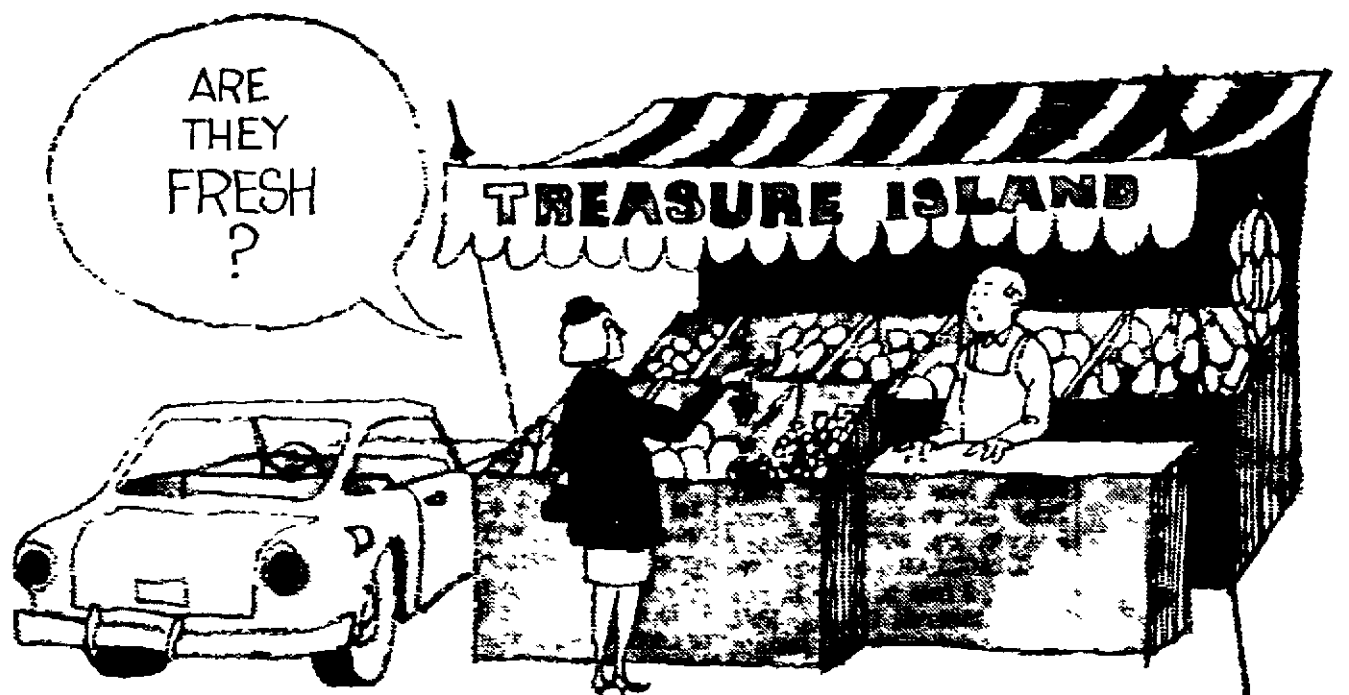

A Much safer than a razor blade is the slower process of first using paint remover to take off the protective finish. Then cover the silver with a layer of salt moistened with a mixture of one part water and three parts cider vinegar. In effect, this produces chlorine, which softens the silvering enough so you can wipe it off in a few hours.

Premier Doing Well

Nguyen Cao Ky Heads Young Government Being Near People

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — South Viet Nam's daring young man on the flying saucer is doing better than many thought he would as premier and successor to a half-dozen military rulers since Ngo Dinh Diem's fall two years ago.

The military government he heads is only a few more trap months old, but that is good — for South Viet Nam. Its life already is longer than some predicted when youthful, dashing and often bold Nguyen Cao Ky took over.

He is calling for sacrifices to support the war against the Communist Viet Cong. He is Van Thieu, whose job roughly preaches a formula of getting close to the people, trying to get them to trust a Saigon government, winning them by deeds rather than lecture on ideology.

He talks real, well, said one American who has spent years watching the volatile Saigon scene. "We'll see whether it amounts to any more than that. Maybe it's too soon to tell, yet."

Ky, an air force general who turned 35 Sept. 9, still does some flying despite the demands of his duties as chief of government. He retained his post as air force commander after taking over as premier June 19.

He was catapulted to power by young generals who set up what is called officially a government directory. Americans and another by his second, fear there would quickly be more struggles for power and upheavals.

But while there have been rumblings of dissatisfaction — normal for Saigon — the directory has shown at least surface smoothness in its functioning. Its military members hold regular meetings in the mountain resort city of Dalat and there was an armed forces congress recently in Saigon without any startling developments or signs that the directory was falling apart.

Student Assaults

Several weeks ago, some relatively minor student demonstrations broke out, centering in the old city of Hue, 390 miles north of Saigon. The students assailed the directory and Gen. Nguyen Van Thieu, whose job roughly corresponds to chief of state, but did not assail Ky.

Ky joined Thieu and other military men in denouncing the student protests, but the demonstrations ended without getting far off the ground. Up to now there have been no crowds taking to the street in the manner which in recent years contributed to the downfall of other regimes.

Ky, whose five feet five inches make him seen tiny among towering Americans, is a Buddhist and native of Hanoi, capital of the Communist regime he now fights. He became a refugee from the North after the Communists took over in 1954. The a trip to Nationalist China and Thailand to drum up anti-Communist support in Southeast Asia. He has traveled extensively inside the country, meeting with officials on problems ranging from those of refugees to the political motivation of restlessness among the mountain people. Ky is a dashing figure in his black flying suit and lavender neckerchief, or in the expensive, hand-tailored suits he affects at social gatherings. But he also can appear tough. He warns of harsh measures against profiteers, speculators and hoarders. He contends that drastic measures are needed to attack the corruption which long has plagued the nation.

No one overlooks the complexity of his problems. Years of war, political upheavals and constant exposure to crises have left the people often apathetic and disinclined to enthusiasm for any government. Economic problems multiply with rapidly rising prices, displacement of large numbers of people and the of foreign troops in a country dominated for centuries from the outside.

Dramatize Determination

Still, some U.S. officials say the American buildup had the effect of giving the government a sense of stability by dramatizing U.S. determination to stand by Viet Nam and not let it be taken over militarily by the Viet Cong, political subversion or at a conference table.

There had been some speculation last month, when Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge arrived, of cool relations between him and Ky. There were rumors Lodge had been sent to change the political scene and perhaps set up a civilian government. Actually, Lodge and Ky had not known one another when Lodge served his first tour here as ambassador. Ky then was just another young officer on his way since he took over. He has made a trip to Nationalist China and Thailand to drum up anti-Communist support in Southeast Asia. He has traveled extensively inside the country, meeting with officials on problems ranging from those of refugees to the political motivation of restless-

Wisconsin's World Fair Cheese Will Come Home in November

Wisconsin's famed "Golden Giant," the 17½-ton cheddar cheese made at Denmark and exhibited at the New York World Fair, is coming home in November.

The cheese will make its last appearance Oct. 17 at the fair and will be on display Nov. 34 time a cheese so large "was given a Wisconsin State Brand top quality rating at the fair by the Borden firm, the Wisconsin Cheese Foundation and the United States Department of Agriculture.

It is believed to be the first cheese ever graded by anyone," according to Vilas Butler, Borden manager. On hearing plans for the cheese to be sliced the Butler said, Borden decided to sell the cheese to the foundation for promotion.

In Eau Claire, according to R. C. Behle, managing director of the foundation, the cheese will be on display in its specially constructed "cheesemobile" from Oct. 30 until the time of its slicing. Several thousand persons are expected to be attracted to the city for the convention and promotion.

The Wisconsin Department of Agriculture is planning a retail store promotion the same week in Eau Claire, with Alice in Dairyland and other dignitaries scheduled to appear.

Cut and Packaged

Portions of the cheese will sell for $1.50 per pound, packaged in two-pound units, Macrae said. Any cheese that remains after the sale in Eau Claire will be sold through the foundation on a mail order basis.

Behle said the promotion at the World Fair was probably the best ever undertaken by the foundation, which serves as the promotional arm of the Wisconsin cheese industry.

"In two years at the fair and in between, millions of Ameri-

How to Succeed — Part III

Your Best Chance for College Of Choice Depends on Action

BY LESLIE J. NASON, Ed.D. or college is operated as a unit. Freshmen enrolling in the college of arts and sciences may, after two, three or four years, under differing requirements, apply for admission to the school of medicine, dentistry, law, education or others. In many universities, however, a freshman may enroll immediately in the schools of engineering, architecture, nursing, home economics, etc.

It is your responsibility to choose the one which will best meet your needs. No one else is going to do this for you. If you are in the upper 10 per cent of your class and your

It is obvious that in shopping for a college you do not merely choose a university but a school or college within the university. Such a choice must be made before application for admission can take place. At about 50 four-year institutions, some public, some private, you may specialize in science and engineering. At a college that normally accepts only those in the upper quarter, if you were accepted, you would have such a struggle keeping your head above water with high aptitudes and grades that you probably would be very unhappy there. These schools provide basic training which can lead to masters and doctors degrees. Other technical institutions specialize in art, business, architecture and other special apitude scores show that you have the ability but that your record to date gives indication that you are not willing to work up to potential, and up your loins and start making a valiant try right now. Prove to your counselor that you ARE willing to work up to your ability — training courses; most offer that you do have what it takes — board liberal arts as well.

Find more efficient ways of studying. Talk with each of your teachers about how to study his course. Get some help from the counselor. It will be worth the every bit of effort. However, if the counselor feels that not only your school marks but your tests on aptitude tests indicate that you would be happier and more successful someplace else than in college, it may be best to set goals, at least temporarily, for accomplishment in a vocational field where a college degree is not a must.

Even in this situation you will want to improve your success as a student. Skill in learning is now required for success in any field.

In the process you may find that not only your grades improve but that your scores on aptitude tests improve. And while an extra year of preparation in a junior college or technical school may be required, it may be possible for you eventually to prove that the counselor's prediction was too pessimistic.

Having taken a good look at your own qualifications and desires, your next step is to gather facts on specific colleges.

Factors While the main consideration is always how well the college will forward your career, there are other factors to consider.

What kind of a college would be best for you? A small college or a large one? One located in a rural community or in a city? A men's (or women's) college or a co-educational school? A public or private school, church-connected or non-church-connected?

Such things can affect your happiness in college. They are personal and should be discussed not only with counselors, college authorities and alumni of the colleges being considered, but with your parents.

Consider large as well as small institutions. You are not as likely to be lost in a large institution as you might think. You will be working with fairly small groups within your own major. Through them, or otherwise, you will make contacts with dormitory groups or other semi-social groups on the campus.

College Types There is a great selection of colleges, roughly divided into the following types:

There are nearly 800 liberal arts colleges, mostly private. Many are church related. If you are looking for a small college many of these range from 300 to 1500 students. They offer from 15 to 30 majors, primarily in humanities and sciences. Some, but not all, are quite successful in pre-law and pre-medicine. The university is a group of colleges or schools. Each school

Piggybacking Excellent Way to Boost Exports

BY SYLVIA PORTER

Let's say you are a small U.S. businessman manufacturing Say, Mr. "W" of XYZ Corp. at "whatchamacallits"—an excel-such-and-such address in Pitts-lent product which you are burgh.
reliably informed would be an (4) You get in touch with Mr.

banon. Let's say you are and who then, assuming the capable of turning out a much export deal is sound, takes over big volume of whatchama- putting the proper labels and callits than you produce today instructions on your product, to
and that if you could find a way packaging, shipping, distributing, merchandizing, promoting,
repairing, etc., etc.

Porter

to export your product, you would not only benefit Lebanon's economy but also substantially raise your own profits.

But you don't know a thing about exporting. You have neither the know-how nor the promotion -advertising facilities marketing organization nor the to sell your product overseas.
What's more, you're practical enough to realize that without proper qualifications, you shouldn't try exporting.

What do you do, then?
You go "piggy-backing" into the world's markets.

Established Firm
In the words of Commerce
Secretary Connor, when we discussed this at length in New York City last week, you work out "an arrangement with a U.S. firm already well established in foreign markets to sell your product through its organization."

"The foreign affiliates of many U.S. corporations can and do distribute the products of other unrelated companies—and they can vastly expand their piggy-backing operations abroad."

Here's how you go about piggy-backing.

(1) You write directly to Secretary of Commerce John T.
Connor at the Commerce Dept.,
Washington, D.C., 20230, stating all essential facts about the whatchamacallits you produce.

Proper Source
(2) Connor turns over your letter to the department's Bureau of International Commerce which, from its files, selects U.S. companies with substidiaries in Lebanon to handle your product.

(3) Connor then writes to you reporting that a proper source Let's say you are a small U.S. for you to contact would be businessman manufacturing Say, Mr. "W" of XYZ Corp. at "whatchamacallits"—an excel-such-and-such address in Pitts-lent product which you are burgh.

reliably informed would be an (4) You get in touch with Mr.
instant success in. say, Le- W. who examines your product banon. Let's say you are and who then, assuming the capable of turning out a much export deal is sound, takes over big volume of whatchama- putting the proper labels and callits than you produce today instructions on your product, to
and that if you could find a way packaging, shipping, distributing, merchandizing, promoting,
repairing, etc., etc.

The benefits to you the maker of whatchamacallits, are, you get the know-how to sell overseas in return for a fair commission to the piggy-backing corporation; you sell more of your products, expand your profits; you develop new markets abroad which may grow enormously in coming years.

The benefits to the company offering the piggy-backing service are: an attractive addition to its product lines, a profit on the commission it charges to represent you for an agreed upon period of time (five years is commonplace).

Tested Concept

The idea of marketing abroad through established firms is not new. General Electric has sold products of other companies through its foreign subsidiaries since early in the century, now piggy-backs unrelated products in countries ranging from Brazil to India. Pillsbury, the world's largest flour exporter, is the exclusive overseas representative of 14 other companies producing goods ranging from fertilizer equipment to cosmetics.

What is new is Connor's powerful sponsorship of the piggy-back concept as one way to boost our annual exports by hundreds of millions of dollars in a comparatively short time.
He believes as many as 5,000
U.S. companies could be added to the 10,000-15,000 now exporting goods via this concept — and this could, over the years, help hike our exports by billions
a year.

No one is sacrificing in this deal. Every one is a winner.
And the concept is so simple.

Taylor to Get Apology for Paint Tossing Incident

LOS ALTOS HILLS, Calif. (AP) — A spokesman for Foothill College said Monday its administration will send a letter of apology to Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, who was splashed with red poster paint and splashed in the face with a water pistol after a talk Friday night.

The former ambassador to South Viet Nam addressed a crowd of 1,500 at a college assembly.

Virginia Hanley, 34, was arrested for wielding the water pistol and spent the night in jail.
She was released Saturday on $276 bail. Her arraignment will be Oct. 11 in the Municipal Court in nearby San Jose, Calif.

Mrs. Hanley, a Menlo Park, Calif., housewife and electronics company mathematician, was charged with disturbing the peace and assault.

The paint that hit Taylor on the shoulder was presumably intended for 15 anti-Viet Nam policy demonstrators standing near the general.

state's best known farmers and the agricultural library at the

Enrollment Deceleration Urged for UW

Madison Campus Crowding Concerns Faculty Committee

MADISON (AP) — A faculty committee says that deceleration of growth on the University of Wisconsin's Madison campus, which presently has a student population of 29,299, is "imperative."

While agreeing with the philosophy that Wisconsin's high school seniors should be provided with all the higher education they can absorb, the University Committee said:

"Consistent with the opportunities for Wisconsin high school graduates to attend institutions of higher learning in the state or elsewhere, deceleration of growth in Madison is imperative."

The six-member committee reported to fellow faculty members Monday that student enrollment on the university's 11 campuses has climbed to a record 46,887. The school's total registration increased 5,554 over last year, and the nine university centers increased 1,332 to 4,770.

The committee said that the enrollment expansion on the Madison campus is tied in with expansion of other public facilities in Wisconsin and it proposed that the entire problem be considered on an integrated basis.

The group said it had reached six tentative conclusions as to the size of the enrollment at Madison but before drafting final recommendations will send a questionnaire to faculty members covering campus size, traffic problems and enrollment limitations.

Members of the committee are Prof. August Eckhardt, chairman, law; John Ferry, chemistry; Douglas Marshall, rural sociology; David Shannon, history; and James Villemonte, civil engineering, all of Madison, and Prof. Marvin Summers, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, political science.

Teachers Attend In-Service Course On Sciences

Twenty-five Fox Valley chemistry and general science teachers are enrolled this fall in a University of Wisconsin Extension division in-service course.

Class meetings are being held in the evenings at public high schools in Kaukauna, Kimberly, Appleton, Neenah and Oshkosh. Dr. Barteld Siebring, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee professor of chemistry, teaches the course.

Purposes of the 10-session, non-credit program are to give the teachers latest information about the most modern approaches to their subject matter, to strengthen the teacher's skills and to help the teacher pass up-to-date knowledge on to his students. Each participant in the course receives travel and book allowances.

Biology teachers in the Fox Valley may be able to participate in their own in-service course this spring if there is enough interest to warrant a course, according to Robert E. Najem, Extension area administrator and dean of the Fox Valley University Center. Biology teachers interested in an in-service course may contact Dean Najem at the Fox Valley Center.

Right-to-Work Test Vote Set By Mansfield

vote for Mansfield's motion but did not expect it to carry.

Republican senators, including Strom Thurmond of South Carolina, were ready to continue the filibuster against the bill today.

No Tricks

Southern Democrats did the talking Tuesday after Dirksen started the filibuster with a lengthy effort Monday.

Mansfield told the Senate there were no "procedural tricks" or short cuts that could be used to bring a quick disposition of the question.

Opponents of the bill are well organized and a final disposition of the bill "can be delayed for weeks or months," he declared.

The bill's sponsors concede they do not have the two-thirds majority required to invoke cloture and shut off debate.

Dirksen told reporters after a meeting of the Senate Republican Policy Committee that he has no offers of any sort of compromise had been made to him so far. If any are made, he said, he will refer them to a conference of all GOP senators.

There have been some reports the bill's opponents might permit a vote on the pending motion to take up the bill if Democratic leaders would then put over debate on the legislation itself to January.

The filibuster in progress is on the preliminary motion to bring the measure before the Senate.

Johnny Cash Accused of Smuggling

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—Country singer Johnny Cash has been released on $1,500 bond after a night and a day in jail on charges of smuggling drugs.

The 33-year-old singer, wearing a gray suit with velvet collar and cuffs, was grim-faced and gave no comment to newsmen at a bond hearing before U.S. Commissioner Colbert Coldwell Tuesday night.

His lawyer, former El Paso County Judge Woodrow W. Bean, said Cash was leaving for his Casitas Springs, Calif., home.

Cash, a former Memphis, Tenn., appliance salesman who became country music's biggest sound in the mid-1950s, was charged with smuggling and concealing illicit drugs after his arrest Monday night at the El Paso International Airport.

U.S. customs agents said they found in his possession 668 tablets of a stimulant and 475 tranquilizer tablets.

At his arraignment, Cash waived preliminary hearing. Testimony brought out that he was carrying $12,000 in checks when arrested.

Holsteins Win State Dairy Herd Competitions

WATERLOO, Iowa (AP)—Wisconsin Holsteins won top honors in the state herd competition at the National Dairy Cattle Congress Tuesday.

Illinois placed second, followed by Ohio, Colorado, South Dakota, Minnesota, Kansas, Iowa and Indiana.

The premier breeders award was won by Harvey A. Nelson and Sons of Union Grove, Wis., and the $150 Fay Barney award for the best animal bred and owned by the exhibitors went to Ralph Draeger, Fort Atkinson. The latter exhibited the first place dry aged cow Future Hope Reflection Blacky.

In the Brown Swiss judging, Wisconsin had the best state herd for the 12th time in 23 years.

Wisconsin placed eighth in the junior Guernsey state herd class, and in open class Guernsey state herd competition Wisconsin was ranked 11th.

Diplomat Evicted From Turnpike For Speeding

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J. (AP)—State Police have evicted an Argentine diplomat from the New Jersey Turnpike. Police said he was traveling at 82 miles per hour. The legal limit is 60.

He was identified as Carlos Aguiar Montagne, 58, of the Plaza Hotel, New York City, financial counselor for the Argentine Embassy.

State trooper William Claus stopped Montagne in Bordentown Township and escorted him 13 miles north to the nearest turnpike exit at Highstown Tuesday. Claus said the diplomat was pleasant during the incident.

Turnpike officials have instituted a crackdown because they said too many diplomatic cars were flouting the speed limits. Montagne was the fifth diplomat to be escorted from the super-highway.

Johnson Announces Plans for Operation

said, "I felt some pangs in my stomach which seemed to be the result of something I had eaten."

The White House physician, Vice Adm. George G. Burkley, he said, examined him, suspected gall bladder trouble, and suggested that X-rays be taken after his return to Washington.

There was a series of these that week, and Johnson said Burkley reported they indicated a poorly functioning gall bladder.

The X-ray films were forwarded to the President's family doctor, former Texan James Cain of the Mayo Clinic staff. Cain and Mayo radiologists confirmed Burkley's diagnosis of a malfunctioning gall bladder with stones, Johnson said.

Advise Surgery
"After further consultation," the President said, "the doctors recommended that the gall bladder be removed. I will, therefore, enter Bethesda naval hospital Thursday night for surgery Friday."

"While I do not anticipate the need for presidential decision or actions during the short time that I shall not be available for that purpose, the Cabinet, and particularly the secretary of state and secretary of defense, as well as my White House staff, will always be in contact with the vice president."

"These men have been a party to and participated thoroughly in all major policy decisions. They are fully and currently informed. The public will of course be kept fully and currently advised of my progress."

Johnson arose from the presidential chair, managed a bit of a smile again, and walked rapidly toward the door. He seemed touched by a chorus of "Good luck, Mr. President," from the press corps.

With Cabinet

Humphrey told newsmen that Johnson had discussed the situation fully with him and the Cabinet, "and we are clear as to the procedures to be followed during his short absence if necessity arises."

Humphrey added that he would remain in Washington and be available at all times during Johnson's hospitalization.

Not since Eisenhower underwent an ileitis operation in 1956 has a president in office required surgery.

Johnson himself had had a kidney stone removed by surgery back in 1955, before his heart attack. And in 1948 one was eliminated by manipulation.

This was recalled by Dr. Cain peaked at times early in his year. But in recent weeks he seemed fit, rested and well-tanned from occasional working and holidays in the Texas sun.

Medical Team
It includes Hallenbeck, Hurst, Burkley, Cain, and four others: Bill D. Moyers, press secretary; Dr. David Paul Osborne, chief surgeon at the naval hospital; Dr. Ed the fast-running presidential ward P. Didier from Mayo Clinic; Dr. Donald C. McIlraith, head of a Mayo section of surgery and Navy Capt James Young, the assistant White House doctor.

It was Hallenbeck who estimated the presidential hospital stay at 10 to 14 days and the ensuing period of reduced activity — something this President will find difficult to accept — at a few weeks. Haylenbeck said Johnson may find himself during this period and thus there may have to be some restrictions.

As to how removal of the gall bladder will affect the President, Hallenbeck said its function "seems to be something one can do without completely."

He said ordinarily it takes one to two hours for the operation, made through an incision in the upper abdomen on the right side. While he is at it, he said, there will be the customary examination of other organs in that area.

No Decision

Moyers said there are no plans at this point for the period after the President leaves the hospital — no decisions on whether Johnson might go to the LBJ Ranch in Texas for recuperation. But he said he assumed the President would be at the White House.

For the time being, the hospital will be the White House. Moyers will set up the press office there, and all official announcements will be channeled through it.

The President will occupy a third floor suite, 14 flights below

Press Corps Surprised

Johnson Gave No Hint Of Pending Operation

By FRANK COMIER

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson looks like a man enjoying perfect health. This is the general impression of most people who see him regularly.

If Johnson has given any hint — outside his inner circle — of the gall bladder trouble that will lead to surgery on Friday, the clues have been almost impossible to spot and went unnoticed.

To White House newsmen, who seek portents in every change of presidential demeanor, the announcement of Johnson's latest health difficulty came as a total surprise — even as President Johnson himself said he has suffered any continuing ill effects from a moderately severe heart attack 10 years ago, he did spend 3½ days in the Bethesda hospital in January, suffering from a heavy cold that left him under par for several weeks. And he has had recurring difficulty with small pieces of his hands, a condition attributed to exposure to

Looked Tired

Johnson did look tired and peaked at times early in his year. But in recent weeks he seemed fit, rested and well-tanned from occasional working and holidays in the Texas sun.

And this general impression apparently has extended to members of the inner circle. Dr. David Paul Osborne, chief surgeon at the naval hospital, said today he has seen no evidence of any slowing down of the Anesthesiologist, Dr. Ed the fast-running presidential ward P. Didier from Mayo Clinic; Dr. Donald C. McIlraith, head the quarters in the hospital tower he used last January.

Mrs. Johnson plans to go to the hospital Thursday night and remain near her husband through and after the operation. Beforehand, she will have to do the honors at a White House dinner Thursday honoring senators, representatives and their wives. The President had planned a speech for the occasion.

Other Plans

Some other presidential plans, unannounced but in the cards, will be tossed out, too. He had expected, for example, to attend a Democratic party dinner in Los Angeles Oct. 15 and perhaps fly on from there to Hawaii or Alaska or both.

His daughter, Luci, probably will be in to see him Friday morning. And daughter Lynda, who is attending the University of Texas at Austin, probably will fly to Washington that night.

State Road Toll Hits 757 Mark

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wisconsin highway deaths for the year reached the 757 mark today. On this date a year ago the total was 819.

Mrs. Marion Hurd, 81, Portage, died today in a Portage hospital of injuries sustained Sunday night in a three-car collision just south of Portage on Highway 51. She was a passenger in one of the cars.

Francis Lloyd, 61, of Campbellsport, who was injured Friday in the collision of his truck and a car on U.S. 41 at the northern edge of Dodge County, died Tuesday in a Fond du Lac hospital.

Possible Cancellation

Johnson Operation Delays Many Plans

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson's gall bladder troubles have forced postponement of communications there. Also, Washington officials are availing themselves of telephone or airplane plans for autumn speaking tours through much of the nation.

Several Johnson appearances had been expected in the next few weeks. There was talk of a road with the adjournment of Democratic fund-raising affair Congress. Tentative planning in Los Angeles on Oct. 15, dedicated travels as far as Alaska and Hawaii. All this has been altered by the decision of his and dedication of the Cape Cod doctors to put him in Bethesda, National Seashore, time uncertain. These appearances, though never firmly fixed, obviously will be postponed, at best.

Since the physicians say Johnson will have to maintain a curtailed schedule for several weeks after an estimated hospital stay of 10 to 14 days, any extensive presidential travel before Thanksgiving seems very much in doubt.

Key Decisions

And between Thanksgiving and New Year's Day, Johnson must make all the key decisions on his next federal budget plus legislative programs for 1966. The work load involved would present a further barrier to travel.

Although Bill D. Moyers, press secretary, said Tuesday he is inclined to believe the chief executive will return directly to the White House from the hospital, few would be surprised if Johnson headed rather quickly for his Texas ranch. That's where he spent five months recuperating from his 1955 heart attack — and he had been hoping to spend much of the late fall and early winter there anyway.

The ranch certainly is the rious Tuesday night.

Chopper Amputates Leg of Farmer in Manitowoc County

MANITOWOC (AP)—George Schuh, 36, a farmer residing near the Manitowoc County village of Branch, lost his left leg just above the knee when he fell into a corn chopper Tuesday.

Schuh was attempting to dislodge corn which had become stuck in the machine when he slipped and fell into the chopper. A highway patrolman applied a tourniquet and Schuh was rushed to a Manitowoc hospital.

His condition was listed as serious Tuesday night.

Mayor to Appeal Guilty Verdict in Name-Calling Incident

DECATUR, Ill. (AP)—Mayor Ellis B. Arnold was brought into court after a motorist complained that the mayor called him names.

A Circuit Court jury deliberated less than an hour Tuesday before finding the mayor guilty of disorderly conduct.

The motorist, Francis B. Wolf, 21, of Decatur, alleged that Arnold, 59, swore at him and called him names July 6 when he found Wolf's car parked illegally.

The mayor could be fined up to $500 on the verdict. Sentencing was delayed pending outcome of a motion for a new trial.

Huge Downtown Program Draws Chamber Support

With the College Avenue rejuvenation plan forming a backdrop, Malcolm Drummond of Harland Bartholomew and Associates, St. Louis, explains the

Businessmen Urge Quick City Action

BY WILLIAM C. CAREY
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

A multi-million dollar, 20-year plan for revitalizing the central business district (CBD) was endorsed Tuesday night by the Appleton Area Chamber of Commerce.

The announcement the business community was throwing its support behind the CBD plan proposed by a St. Louis consulting firm was made during a public meeting at Lawrence University Music-Drama Center.

More than 250 persons, representing a cross section of the community, attended the briefing on the detailed plans proposed for rejuvenating the core, or central city.

Harold C. Adams, Appleton banker and chairman of the recently formed Project 85 Committee, said the Chamber's board of directors reviewed the CBD plan in detail, approved it, and urged the Appleton Council to do likewise.

Major Items
Urging that the council use the plan as a guide, the Chamber asked city officials to give immediate attention to:

- Reconstruction and modernization of College Avenue.
- Establishment of an initial urban renewal area.
- Development of Jones Park as a civic center, including an auditorium, parking ramp, city hall and federal building (post office).
- Construction of a new high level bridge over the Fox River.
- Preparing an updated long-term capital improvement program.

Adams said the Chamber board offered any assistance possible to implement the specific projects in the extensive plan.

"The Chamber endorses the plan and hopes you will, too, in a general way so the projects can come into being," Adams said.

Retail Support
Added support for the plan came from Ted Gilleland, chairman of the Downtown Retail Association, who warned the longer the projects are put off the greater the cost.

Gilleland cautioned against becoming alarmed over cost estimates for rejuvenating the central business area, declaring that it should be considered an investment in the future of a greater Appleton.

The CBD plan, Gilleland said, concerned and affects all citizens of Appleton — not just merchants on College Avenue. He urged city officials, businessmen and citizens to "close ranks and get together because all will have a role to play."

Gilleland said he felt strongly

Low Bids for Appleton's Garage Total $750,677

Appleton's new municipal garage will cost $750,677 to construct on the basis of low bids shop areas.

The total was $677 over the latest cost estimate recently supplied city officials by Orbison and Orbison, Inc., the Appleton-based consulting engineers contracted to design the building.

If the Appleton Council approves awarding contracts to the low bidders in two weeks, construction of the municipal facility will get underway within days at the old airport property recently acquired by the city.

Low bidders are: Ted Utschig Construction Co., Appleton, general construction, $524,451; R. Wenzel Plumbing and Heating Co., Appleton, plumbing, $69,943, and heating - ventilating, $77,613; Langstadt's, Inc., Appleton, electrical, $59,890; and B. Hoffman Co., Oshkosh, sprinkler system (fire protection), $18,780.

Started Two Years Ago
About two years ago when the preliminary planning of the garage was approved the estimated cost of the proposed building was $700,000. It later was boosted to $800,000 after the plans were reworked and size of the garage increased.

Construction of the garage was delayed for several months when a controversy developed over design and preparation of the final plans. A few aldermen felt the building should be designed with fabricated steel construction.

However, after several meetings the council gave the go-ahead to preparing the final plans and advertising for bids.

The building, of steel and masonry construction, has 101,815 square feet of floor space. The exterior will be of face old brick.

72,480 Square Feet
Predominantly a one - story eight-inch meters, which are structure, the municipal garage used for industrial and commercial purposes, will be 219 vehicle storage and maintenance compared to the former $200.

Eight Appleton and area construction firms submitted bids for the general contract with Oscar J. Boldt Construction Co.

The second low bidder on a $532,200 quotation, followed by P. G. Miron Construction with $538,000. The highest bid was $576,420 by Ganther Construction Co.

The garage, replacing the city's present facility at 924 W. Spencer St., will be situated on a 17-acre site on the northern edge of the city, the property recently annexed to Appleton.

City crews are installing water and other underground utilities to the area to service the garage.

The contract calls for the garage to be completed and ready for occupancy by Nov. 1, 1966. Once the new garage is in operation, the city will sell the Spencer street building and property.

Kimberly Baby Shows Improvement

MADISON — A "much better than expected" report has been issued on the condition of Allen Trudell, one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Trudell, 127 N. Wilson St., Kimberly, who underwent a seven-hour heart operation last week for correction of a birth defect.

The report was issued by the family this morning. It stated that although constant care of

Allen Trudell

The child will be needed for at least two more weeks, his present condition is better than had been anticipated for this time. The operation originally had been for correction of a hole in the child's heart, the family said, but due to other defects, surgery had lasted longer than planned. The heart was not in the correct position in the chest cavity and was completely removed from the child's body for 3 1/2 hours during the operation, the family said. A fund has been established for payment of medical expenses. Contributions may be sent to the Kimberly State Bank.

Kaukauna Adopts Voting Procedures

Council Approves Temporary Rules for Aldermanic Elections

KAUKAUNA — The city council Tuesday night adopted an ordinance setting up voting procedures in the five city wards for the next three years after ward reorganization earlier this year resulted in some present aldermen being moved into a new ward.

Under the plan, First, Second and Fifth ward voters will elect one alderman for a two-year term in the spring of 1966, '67 and '68. Third Ward voters will elect two aldermen in the spring of 1966, the one getting the highest number of votes for a two-year term and the runnerup a one-year term. In 1967 the practice of electing one alderman for a two-year term will be resumed.

Fourth Ward voters will not elect an alderman in 1966, but will elect two in 1967, one for a one-year and one for a two-year term. In 1968 the election of one alderman for two years will be resumed.

The First and Second Ward voting station remained at Park School under the ordinance and Third and Fourth at Nicolet School. The Fifth Ward voting station will be at the new ward.

County Farm Herd Equipment Sold

OSHKOSH — The passing of an era was marked at the Winnebago County Institutions Tuesday and today as auctioneers sold off the county farm machinery and livestock.

No longer will Winnebago County operate a farm as it has for many years. At one time the county farm was the main occupational therapy for county hospital patients.

But that practice has been discontinued since most of the county hospital patients or Pleasant Acres residents are at an advanced age whereby they are unable to perform farm duties, many of the patients do not have a farming background and the increased mechanization of farming has reduced the use of patients in farming operations.

The aldermen added one stipulation though when the town lays inside city limits, the background is a number of council insisted in its motion problems where there are conflicts between the city and the town over the laying of the new water system.

There have been charges and rebuttals on whether the town is laying its new water system 183 acres through the center of the town with specifications lower than would be allowed in the city.

Three Sections — At the committee-of-the-whole meeting Monday, Mayor John R. Kuehl (Second Ward), Klein and Director of Public Works Robert Poss recommended the requests be denied cooperation by the council was so the matter could be clarified a speech from the floor by in a state Public Service Commission review. Federal Grant Totaling $90,027 Approved for State Economic Office

MADISON (AP) — Gov. Warren P. Knowles announced today the approval of a federal grant totaling $90,027 to continue the work of the Wisconsin office of economic opportunity for another year.

Wisconsin's share in the federal-state program is $10,004, making a total of $100,031 as the approved cost of the program.

Wisconsin's economic opportunity office works to assist local agencies in establishing community organizations to administer anti-poverty programs.

he wooded, underground structure. Since then there has been considerable speculation as to the identity of the timber-constructed chamber which is six feet deep and about six feet wide.

An educated guess is that it's one of the old underground fire reservoirs.

Last year when a crew was constructing a tunnel near College Avenue and Division Street, it encountered a round-shaped cistern.

Old-timers and local history buffs say the cisterns were commonplace in the central part of the city years ago. However, the problem confronting city officials today is their location.

Public Works Director Robert W. Bues says something will have to be decided on what to do with the reservoir at College-Durkee before new sewer can be installed at that corner.

"We're going to have to find out just where that underground thing goes and then determine whether to remove it, or drain the water and fill it in," Bues commented.

Bues didn't think there was any danger of the street's caving in over the shallow chamber.

However, he was concerned over the possibility that others exist underneath Appleton streets and no one seems to know where.

Installation Of Sump Pumps Asked by Board

Feel Action Will Relieve Flooding In Kimberly Area

KIMBERLY — Approximately 190 residents living near the west limits of the village Monday were asked by the village board to install sump pumps in their basements to alleviate basement flooding during periods of heavy rain.

Inspection by village personnel revealed persons having sump pumps discharging outside the home were not affected by the recent flooding. In periods of heavy rains numerous complaints are received by trustees and village officials from property owners.

Harry Van Himbergen was reappointed chairman of the water commission for a 1-year term and Glen Vandehy, 724 E. Third St., was named to a 3-year term as water commissioner to replace Henry Melcher who did not seek reappointment.

Village crews were authorized to extend the sanitary sewer on Kimberly Avenue about 300 feet west after two area property owners signed waivers permitting installation without the necessary 30 day waiting period.

Approval was given to purchase of tree spray material amounting to $850 and the clerk was instructed to advertise for bids on a carload of salt for use on streets during the winter months.

The application of Lawrence Voelker, Appleton, to operate a tavern and for a tavern license at 121 W. Kimberly Ave., was approved. The assessor was authorized to attend an institute sponsored by the League of Municipalities at Madison Nov. 1 through 3.

Boards Warned To be Ready for Court Action

Urged to Record Considerations In Redistricting

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
MADISON — Prudent county officials will carefully record the factual considerations involved in their new county board reapportionment ordinances, the Wisconsin County Boards Association has advised its members.

The county officials should "fortify themselves" with documentary files, including the population statistics employed in setting up new supervisory districts, as a precaution against the possibility of litigation in the courts, said A. J. Thelen of the association.

County boards are currently in the process of reorganization, in accordance with the "one man, one vote" requirement of the state Supreme Court decree a year ago that was later incorporated into an act of the legislature. Most of the boards will be smaller in size. In most instances the result of redistricting will be to give greater representation to urban areas.

Thelen published his admonition in his annual report as manager of the association.

"If the board does what in its estimation is the best job possible," he said about the reapportionment requirement, "that is all that can be expected."

The association has apparently concluded that the new state law does not establish a test for compliance with the redistricting rule, and that local ordinances will stand or fall according to their validity as may be tested in individual legal actions in particular counties.

The new law requires county board redistricting according to population at decennial intervals, following the 10-year reapportionment obligation which the state constitution also imposes upon the legislature for the designation of legislative findings on population.

Dozen Quebec Murders Blamed On Crime Probe

MONTREAL (AP) — Quebec Justice Minister Claude Wagner says a dozen persons may have been killed by the underworld in an attempt to block his department's campaign on crime.

Wagner told a news conference Monday three bodies had been discovered in swamps near St. Gilles, Que., two more were being unearthed in other communities south of Quebec City, and six or seven other bodies might be found in the Montreal or Quebec City areas.

"The purpose of these murders is to suppress proof or to ensure silence," the minister said.

The minister said police are holding four men in connection with the killings but no charges have been filed.

You might say "Yes" to this, that their minds and spirits are feeling as many parents do that not damaged by what they read, as we are concerned only with He was angry at, and jealous the trivialities on the surface of of. that Mayor Clarence Mitchell and the council had foresight in hiring the firm of Harland Bartholomew and Associates of St. Louis.

"The experts have come up with realistic and workable plans," Gilleland observed.

"Something for Everybody"

"There is something in this plan for everybody," Gilleland added, "and it will take everybody to make it work."

Gilleland warned that Appleton is at a crossroads and in 1965 a decision would have to be made on whether the city should grow and prosper or suffer the consequences in the future.

Other civic leaders, including Gordon Bubolz, a member of the advisory board to the State Department of Resource Development, said Appleton needed a plan for the future and should start implementing it.

Malcom Drummond, St. Louis, and Jack Nelson, resident planner for the consulting firm, had earlier outlined the entire CBD plan which will route transient traffic around the central area and make it shopper-pedestrian oriented.

Four-Lane Bridge

The proposed new bridge would have four lanes and cross the river at Oneida Street, feeding traffic off to Sixth Street, Prospect Avenue and Waters Street with an interchange.

Drummond said Oneida, Appleton, Franklin, Washington and Lawrence Streets and College Avenue would be the main downtown traffic arteries.

Drummond said projections show that by 1985 College Avenue will carry 16,000 cars a day and Franklin Street 24,000.

The plan calls for College Avenue to have closed ends at Durkee Street and Memorial Drive.

It was the opinion of planning experts that angle parking be removed from the avenue and replaced with parallel.

Drummond said Appleton's parking needs by 1985 would be 7,450 spaces and pointed out the plan calls for additional downtown ramps, surface lots and an underground parking structure in Jones Park for 2,048 vehicles.

No Angle Parking

"The worst thing that could happen to that street (College Avenue) would be angle parking," Drummond warned.

He said the avenue from Division to Oneida Streets would form the downtown retail core, with an office building complex recommended to the north and civic center to the south, the latter a six-block area.

The plan would have the business area bounded by Oneida, Lawrence, Durkee and Washington Streets earmarked for a specialty center, having shops serviced by shoppers' walks and malls.

The area south of the new YMCA building is designated for high rise apartments.

Mid-block pedestrian crossings would be on the avenue and other downtown streets.

Drummond envisioned many older buildings in the four mall areas being rehabilitated, taking on an old-time gas-light era theme.

College Avenue would be of

Chases Them, Testifies at Waupaca

Father 'Arrests' Men Ignoring Bus

WAUPACA — A rural Waupaca father of two grade school children who said he became "sick and tired" of cars ignoring school bus regulations in front of his home, testified Tuesday against two motorists he "arrested" after their cars passed a stopped school bus in front of his home.

Lucius Anthony, route 1, Waupaca, was chief witness Tuesday in a traffic case which resulted in fines of $25 each for William Winkler, 60, route 4, Waupaca, and Lawrence Cater, 45, of Amherst.

Busy Highway

Anthony, whose two children, 6 and 9 years, board and alight from the bus across busy U.S. 10-45 and State 22 in front of the home, followed the two cars after his wife saw them pass the parked bus which had red flashing lights operating one day in September.

The Anthony car had been placed in the driveway to follow any cars which passed the bus, Mrs. Anthony said, "just in case."

Lectures Drivers

Anthony followed both cars and stopped them within a short distance. Both Winkler and Cater, in separate cars, were very cooperative and agreed to follow Anthony to Waupaca County Court and talk things over with Justice George Whalen. Justice Whalen issued traffic summons to the two men after Anthony agreed to sign a complaint against them. Court date was set for Tuesday when both appeared and pleaded guilty.

Mrs. Anthony said she "did not want to make a big thing of this, but it is important for people to realize that it is their duty to stop for the buses."

Justice Whalen Tuesday lectured both drivers about the seriousness of their act and ordered fines and costs totaling $38 each.

Mrs. Anthony said that the school bus driver, known to her only as "Chuck," is "exceedingly cautious" and does not discharge passengers until he is sure all cars behind him are stopped. Therefore, passengers were not being discharged when the two cars passed the bus in September, she said.

Outagamie County had 1,796 persons receive 22,132 pounds of food. Winnebago 1,386 persons and 22,348 pounds and Waupaca 929 persons and 14,623 pounds.

The Giant-Killer Rides Again!

ROGUE: new razzle-dazzle Rambler (yes, Rambler!). Outperforms every other car in its class (with standard engine!). "Do Rogues really come with rally stripes?" "No, but with the big new engine they drive that way." '66 Rambler American Rogue here October 7th.

REBEL: new roomy, zoomy Rambler. Doesn't cramp your style, or your legs, or your family, or your pocketbook. Think you know a Rambler when you see one? Think again, look again. See the '66 Rambler Classic Rebel at your friendly Giant-Killer's on October 7th.

AMBASSADOR DPL by American Motors. Now you can have your first luxury car while you're still young enough to enjoy it. Coil-spring seats like Cadillac. Double-Safety brakes like Cadillac. Price? Like Impala, Fury, Galleon. Be sure to see it on October 7th.

MARLIN 66 by American Motors. Full-size family-size sports fastback seats 6—in comfort. (Even with bucket seats.) Flip down the front and rear armrests and turn your Marlin into a 2+2. Don't miss it at your friendly Giant-Killer's on October 7th.

American Motors Challenges the "Big 3" of Detroit—With 4 New Lines of '66 Cars that Give the Public What it Wants.

Last time it was size. This time? A new concept in quality: Quality that's built in—not added on. The American Motors promise: more built-in quality features—for extra comfort, safety, performance, and economy—at no extra price.

Remember when American Motors came out with the trim little Rambler and knocked the Detroit "Giants" on their collective ear? Overnight, big fins and land yachts went out of style. American Motors came along with the right cars at the right time and caught the competition napping. This year, almost half the automobiles sold are Rambler-size cars.

Round one to the "Giant-Killer." What next? New trend? Yes. For '66, American Motors again gets the jump on the big boys with a new rallying cry: Quality! A new kind of quiet quality that's built in as standard equipment on every car in the line. This is the American Motors credo. Quality that's built in—not added on. First, determine what has to go into a car to make it stronger, safer, more dependable, more luxurious. Then put it there. Regardless of cost. Build it in.

Ready to be convinced? Ready to be surprised? Check this page for a preview of the 4 sleek, challengers. New cars. New names. When you have finished, please get on your horse and go to the friendly Giant-Killer in your town, your American Motors Rambler Dealer.

8 Friendly Ways Giant-Killer Builds Quality In!

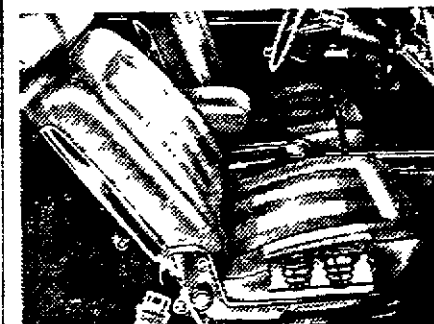

1. Double-Safety brake system. Every American Motors car offers you two hydraulic systems instead of one as standard equipment. On "one" Big 3 car does that: Cadillac.
2. Deen-Down proofing. We don't just spray it on. We dunn the cars in it—clear up to the roof.
3. Three 6's... three V-8's: 199 to 327 cu. in.* Power. Lots of it. Economy? Who else but Rambler American wins best mileage in the Mobil Economy Run year after year?
4. Advanced Unit Construction. Instead of bolting bodies and frames, American Motors welds them into one squeak-proof, rattle-proof unit. Quiet. Strong. Safe.
5. Certain-Armored exhaust system. Same premium space heaters use to resist intense heat. We put it in all our cars.

6. Extruded-aluminum grilles. Squeeze the grille of most any car. It bends. All our grilles are extruded aluminum. Smarter. Unsqueezeable!

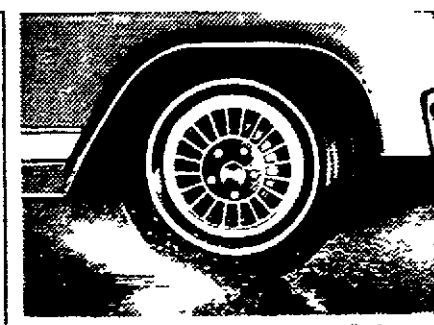

7. Bail-bearing ashtrays. Amazing new device for keeping eyes on the road, fingers intact.

8. Brilliant interiors. New Hialeah Plaid* for Rambler Rebel. Hounds-tooth Check* for Ambassador DPL. Both knockouts!

*Based on a comparison of interior quality with other cars in the class.

BUILT IN QUALITY IS BUILT IN LUXURY. American Motors builds all their seats with coil-innersprings. Only one other U.S. car does that: a Cadillac. Interesting coincidence.

BUILT IN QUALITY IS BUILT IN SAFETY. Only one "Big 3" car (and American Motors) offer a safety package with a Double-Safety brake system at no extra cost. Cadillac.

BUILT IN QUALITY IS BUILT IN PERFORMANCE. Big new standard engines. Sporty option: 4-on-the-floor. Two automatics* also available to handle the chore of gear selection.

Count and Color Pumpkins In Weekly Club Contest

BY CAPPY DICK

A copy of the 948-page Advanced Junior Dictionary plus two other educational books all published by Scott Foresman and Company, is the national grand prize in today's count-and-color pumpkin contest.

Five sets of the books will be given away, one to each boy or girl whose contest entry is judged to be one of the five nearest most original correct ones received from all the cities where this column is published.

All you have to do to try to win a prize is count and color the pumpkins in the picture above and most original correct entries.

In addition to the big Advanced Junior Dictionary which contains many pictures to illustrate the thousands of words defined in the national prize book, include a Scott Foresman book entitled "Everyday Problems in Science" and another entitled "In All Our States." All three books are useful in school work.

Count Carefully

Count the pumpkins carefully in the picture to be sure you miss none. Then color them with your paints or crayons. Clip out the picture. Paste it on a sheet of paper or a poster card. Print your name, age and address beneath. Decorate the entry in any way or draw using paints, crayons, cutouts or other methods.

Finally, address the entry to Cappy Dick's Magazine, c/o the Post-Crescent and mail it before midnight of day after tomorrow.

When the judges have selected the prize-winning entries, names and addresses of the boys and girls who sent them will be published here. Their prizes will be sent to their homes by mail. Judges' decisions will be final. All entries become Cappy Dick's property, none can be returned.

Members of both political parties in the legislature are talking with evident determination of limiting the fall legislative deliberations to a period of about three weeks. In such a situation the housing bill may be defeated by the calendar. Dempsey cannot hold a hearing on the housing measure until next week, under the rules, and if the legislature is determined to keep its session short, opponents will be able to sidetrack the bill by amendments and other parliamentary devices. If the measure reaches a roll call vote on its merits, according to most estimates, it will have a fair to good chance of passage by the Senate.

O'Konski placed the blame squarely on President Johnson, commenting that the Chief Executive "wants to show the congress and the country who is boss."

American Motors Challenges the "Big 3" of Detroit—With 4 New Lines of '66 Cars that Give the Public What it Wants.

Last time it was size. This time? A new concept in quality: Quality that's built in—not added on. The American Motors promise: more built-in quality features — for extra comfort, safety, performance, and economy — at no extra price.

Remember when American Motors came out with the trim little Rambler and knocked the Detroit "Giants" on their collective ear? Overnight, big fins and fat land yachts went out of style. American Motors came along with the right cars at the right time and caught the competition napping. This year, almost half the automobiles sold are Rambler-size cars.

Round one to the "Giant-Killer." What next? New trend? Yes. For '66, American Motors again gets the jump on the big boys with a new rallying cry: Quality! A new kind of quiet quality that's built in as standard equipment on every car in the line. This is the American Motors credo. Quality that's built in—not added on. First, determine what has to go into a car to make it stronger, safer, more dependable, more luxurious. Then put it there. Regardless of cost. Build it in.

Ready to be convinced? Ready to be surprised? Check this page for a preview of the sleek challengers. New cars. New names. When you have finished, please get on your horse and go to the friendly Giant-Killer in your town, your American Motors/Rambler Dealer.

8 Friendly Ways Giant-Killer Builds Quality In!

1. Double-Safety brake system. Every American Motors car offers you two hydraulic systems instead of one as standard equipment. Only one "Big 3" car does that: Cadillac.
2. Deep-Dip rustproofing. We don't just spray it on. We dunk the cars in it—clear up to the roof.
3. Three 6's... three V-8's: 199 to 327 cu. in.* Power. Lots of it. Economy? Who else but Rambler American wins best mileage in the Mobil Economy Run year after year?
4. Advanced Unit Construction. Instead of bolting bodies and frames, American Motors welds them into one squeak-proof, rattle-proof unit. Quiet. Strong. Safe.
5. Ceramic-Armored exhaust system. Same principle space rockets use to resist intense heat. We put it in all our cars.

6. Extruded-aluminum grilles. Squeeze the grille of most any car. It bends. All our grilles are extruded aluminum. Smarter. Unsqueezeable!

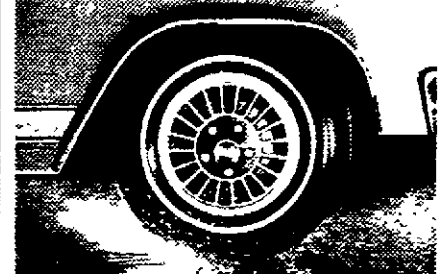

7. Ball-bearing ashtrays. Amazing new device for keeping eyes on the road, fingerprints intact.

8. Brilliant interiors. New Hialeah Plaid* for Rambler Rebel. Houndstooth Check* for Ambassador DPL. Both knockouts!

*Hialeah Plaid and Houndstooth Check are registered trademarks of American Motors Corporation.

BUILT-IN QUALITY IS BUILT-IN LUXURY. American Motors builds all their seats with coil inner-springs. Only one other U.S. car does that: Cadillac. Interesting coincidence.

BUILT-IN QUALITY IS BUILT-IN SAFETY. Only one "Big 3" car (and American Motors) offer a safety package with a Double-Safety brake system at no extra cost: Cadillac.

BUILT-IN QUALITY IS BUILT-IN PERFORMANCE. Big new-floor engines. Sporty option: 4-on-the-hand. Two automatics* also available to handle the chore of gear selection.
